PREFACE.

The compilation seeking public favor in this volume is nothing more—nor less—than an American supplement to the “Art of Verifying Dates.” It is not a history in the ordinary meaning of the word; it is a manual of fundamental data for the guidance of future historians of the Church in the United States, as well as of corrections of errors into which all our historians have so far fallen.

This work, then, is rather a guide for students than a book for the general public, a modest addition to the literature of deep research, if not of erudition. In this respect it represents a most useful and valuable division of labor, and cannot but bring a great saving of time to the painstaking historian such as we still need to record fully and faithfully the origin and growth of the Church in this country. The shortcomings of the works that we have on this subject are in some instances due to the fact that the entire field of original research is too much for any one person to cultivate; for very often a single volume of this character that is by no means large may represent the work of the best part of a lifetime.

On the other hand, too many of our so-called Church histories are merely books “made to sell.” They are full of errors of omission as well as of commission, repeat all the old-time misstatements, and are of no value as reliable works of reference. Many of their assertions are the hearsays and recollections of persons who perhaps “ought to have known,” but did not know. There is very little trace of direct research, and none at all of verification, unless the records were very close to hand. Proofs of this carelessness abound in the present volume.

But to a great extent these errors are to be excused; for, on the part of writers of the general history of the Church, an enormous amount of labor is required to verify even the leading facts on which suspicion may be entertained by those critically disposed. Any attempt, then, of a single writer to produce a correct history from the sources, scattered and hidden as they have been, must inevitably fail, no matter how gifted and industrious the writer may be. The sources must be made known and brought within easy reach; and it is only by concerted effort on the part of many, each enthusiastic in his own chosen department, that the result can be made beneficial to the general historian.

One of these departments is exhaustively exploited here; and in dealing with it I have had but one object in view, that of presenting a carefully investigated compilation of Persons, Places and Dates, all of which have been so closely verified as to furnish a sure guide to writers. This work has occupied the compiler's seeking and searching during all his leisure hours for eight years. In soliciting and directing searches, over four thousand letters were sent to hundreds of priests, monks, nuns, bishops, cardinals and learned laymen, living in various and widely separated parts of the world, from America to India, from France to Australia; and in nearly every case they received careful attention. No possible source of information has been overlooked; and so careful have I been to note the result in each case that I have even specially marked the places where it will be useless to search hereafter.

I take great pleasure in giving public expression of my gratitude to all who have assisted and encouraged me, but especially to those who urged me to persevere until such data as this work contains should be recovered from oblivion and carefully preserved as an integral and fundamental part of American Catholic Church history.

ALEMANY, MT. REV. JOSEPH SADOE, O.P., D.D.,
(First Bp. Monterey, First Abp. San Francisco)

Born July 13, 1814, and baptized on the same day, at Vich, Province of Catalonia, Spain. His parents were Don Antonio Alemany, and Doña Maria Miguelo Cunis,⁽¹⁾ ordained March 27, 1837, being Saturday before Passion Sunday, at Viterbo, Italy, in the Cathedral of San Lorenzo, by Mgr. Gaspar Piannetti, Abp. of Viterbo, and Toscano⁽²⁾. He was consecrated in the Church of San Carlo, at Rome, on June 30, 1850, by Cardinal Fransoni, Abp. of "Nazienzenus", assisted by R'mo Josepho Valergo, Patriarch of Jerusalem, and R'mo Joanna Dominico Stefanelli, Abp. of "Trajanópolis", having been elected on May 31, 1850, Bp. of Monterey,⁽³⁾ California, U. S. A. On July 29, 1853, he was promoted to the title of Abp. and transferred to the See of San Francisco; resigned in November, 1884, accepted December, 1884, and he was made Titular Abp. of "Pelusium".

Died April 14, 1888, at Valencia, Spain.

(1) From Record of the baptism in the Cathedral of Vich, copy furnished by H. E. The Cardinal Abp. of Valencia, also from Bp. of Vich.

(2) Ordination data from the Abp. of Valencia, verified by letters from the Dominican Convents at Toledo (Spain), Viterbo and Florence. The Bp. of Vich, adds, "During the last three months of the year 1836 he resided at Vich, when he was sent to Rome, from whence he went to Viterbo."

The Bp. of Viterbo also sent official copy of the Record of the ordination.

(3) The Consecration data have never been published in any of our histories. Search having been made for it during three years prior to 1897, in all the Dominican Convents in Europe and America. Dr. Shea, in "Church in the U. S., Vol. iv., p. 356, gives the date June 13 (an error). Search was also made at the Propaganda, in the Archives of the "Ceremoniale," at Rome. Fr. Brandi, Cardl Parrochi, Mgr. Reggi, Mgr. Menghini sought in vain. Padre Emanuelo Alemany, O. S. D., of Florence, and Padres Ignacio and Miguel Alemany, O. S. D.

(of Spain), brother and nephews of the Abp., made repeated searches—in vain. The merest accident of search revealed the original certificate in a packet of old papers; it is signed viz.:

*"Joan, Corazza Apticae, sedes coereemoniarius,
 "Protonotarius,
 "Nathanael Car, Fucillis, Sectis,
 "Jo Bapta, Pavoni, Testis,
 "Fr. Joannes M. Alemany."*

ALLEN, RT. REV. EDWARD PATRICK, D.D.,

(Fifth Bp. of Mobile, Ala.)

Born at Lowell, Mass., March 17, 1853, of John and Mary (Egan) Allen; received Tonsure August 26, 1880, at the hands of Bp. Watterson, of Columbus; Deacon, Sub Deacon, in September, 1881, from Bp. Shanahan; ordained Priest, December 17, 1881, at Mt. St. Mary's, Emmettsburg, Md., by Bp. Becker, of Wilmington, Del.; received the degree of "D.D.," in 1889, from Georgetown College, D. C. He was appointed Bp. of Mobile, in January, 1897. The Bull was dated the 26th; consecrated May 16, 1897, at Baltimore (cathedral), by Cardinal Gibbons, assisted by Bp. Fitzgerald, and Bp. Harkins; sermon by Rev. Philip J. Garrigan, D.D., of the Catholic University.

ALLEN, RT. REV. MGR., PATRICK FRANCIS,

(Domestic Prelate, Diocese, N. O.)

(¹) Born 1833, in the Diocese of Meath, Ireland; ordained December 21, 1862, at New Orleans, La., by Bp. Odin; named Dom. Prel. 1879; invested by Abp. Perché.

Died at New Orleans, November 23, 1887.

(1) The above furnished by Archbishop Janssens, being the only data available to him; birth, date and place unknown.

ALEXIUS, RT. REV. ABBOT, O.S.B.,

(baptized, "Anthony Edelbrock.")

Born September 12, 1843, at Duelmen, Westphalia, Germany; professed at St. Vincents, Abbey, Pa., August 15, 1864; ordained September 29, 1867, at St. Paul Minn., by Rt. Rev. Thomas L. Grace, D.D.; elected Abbot of St. Louis' Abbey, at Collegeville, Minn., on June 2, 1875; election confirmed by Rome, August 15, 1875. He was Blessed Abbot at St. Cloud, Minn., on October 24, 1875, by Rt. Rev. Rupert Seidenbush, O. S. B.; abdicated November 30, 1889; resides at St. Anselm's Church, New York City.

AMAT, RT. REV. THADEUS ⁽¹⁾, C.M., D.D.,
(Second Bp. of Monterey, Cal.)

Born December 31, 1810 ⁽²⁾, in Barcelona, Spain; ordained "Trinity Ordinations," 1838 ⁽³⁾, at the House of the "C. M.," Paris, France ⁽⁴⁾, by Mgr. Hyacinthe Louis de Quelen, Abp. of Paris; consecrated in the Chapel of the Urban College, Rome, Italy ⁽⁵⁾, March 12, 1854, by Cardinal Fransoni, assisted by Mgr. Letterio Turchi, Bp. of Citta de Castello, and Mgr. Guglielmo Keane, Bp. of Ross, Ireland; made Bp. Monterey and Los Angeles. The Holy See granted to him the faculty of being called Bishop of Los Angeles, in 1859, and permitted him to take his seat at that place.

Died at Los Angeles, Cal., May 12, 1878.

(1) The name is printed "Theofle," in the "Giornale di Roma," of March 13, 1854, but is recorded as "Thaddeus."

(2) From Bp. 'Mora.'

(3) From Bp. 'Mora.'

(4) Entered the C. M., in 1832. This data of ordination is from the Paris House.

(5) Elected July 28, 1853, (Giornale di Roma, March 13, 1854,) he came to the U. S. in 1838, went into the missions of Louisiana, in 1841 was named Director of Novices in the C. M. House (The Barrens), in Missouri, in 1847 Superior at Philadelphia.

Dr. Shea, in "History Church in U. S.," Vol. iv, p. 709, erroneously states that he was Rector of the Seminary (Phila.) till 1857, three years after his consecration.

ANDREW, RT. REV. ARCH ABBOT, O.S.B.,
(baptised, 'Tobias Hintenach.')

Born at Schollbrunn, Freiburg, Baden, May 12, 1844; professed July 11, 1861; ordained April 12, 1867, at St. Vincent's Abbey, Pa., by Bp. Domenec, of Pittsburg; elected Abbot of "St. Vincents," February 8, 1888; election confirmed at Rome, July 4, 1888; blessed at "St. Vincents," July 5, 1888, by Bp. Phelan, of Pittsburg; made Arch Abbot in September of same year. Resignation accepted at Rome, May 25, 1892, announced to the Chapter June 6, 1892, since when he has been chaplain at the Benedictine Convent of "St. Scholastica," Canon City, Diocese of Denver, Colorado.

BACON, RT. REV. DAVID WILLIAM, D.D.,
(First Bp. of Portland, Me.)

Born September 15, 1813, in New York City. Ordained December 13, 1838, at St. Mary's Seminary, Baltimore, by Abp. Eccleston; consecrated at the Cathedral, New York City, April 22, 1855, by Abp. Hughes, assisted by Bp. Fitzpatrick of Boston, and Bp. Loughlin of Brooklyn; sermon by Bp. McCloskey of Albany. In August, 1874, he sailed for Europe for his health, in company with Abp. McCloskey of New York. On reaching Brest he was taken to the hospital, where he lay until Dr. McCloskey was returning to the United States, when, at his own request, he was placed on board the vessel and sailed for New York. He never recovered, and died in New York City, November 5, 1874.

BALTES, RT. REV. PETER JOSEPH, D.D.,

(Second Bp. of Alton, Ill.)

Born April 7, 1827, at Ensheim, Bavaria; ordained May 21, 1853, at Montreal, Canada, by Bp. Ignatius Bourget, D.D.; consecrated in St. Peter's Church, Belleville, Ill., January 23, 1870, by Bp. Leurs, assisted by Bp. Toebe and V. Rev. P. J. Ryan, V. G., of St. Louis (later Abp. of Phila.).

Died at Alton, Ill., February 15, 1886.

BARAGA, RT. REV. FREDERICK, D.D.,

(First Bp. of Sault Ste Marie, Mich.)

(¹) Born June 29, 1797, in Malavas Parish, Debernitz, Treffin, in Carniola; ordained September 21, 1823, at Laibach, Austria, by the Prince-bishop, Augustine Gruber, D.D.; consecrated Bp. of "Amyzon," i. p. i., and Vicar Apostolic of Upper Michigan, on November 1, 1853, at Cincinnati, O., by Bp. Purcell, assisted by Bp. Henni, and Bp. Lefevre; made Bp. of Sault Ste Marie, January, 9, 1857; sede transferred to Marquette, Mich., in May, 1866.

Died at Marquette, January 19, 1868.

(1) Dr. Shea, in "Church in U. S.," says he was born in Treffin Castle, which is not the fact, as his father did not occupy Treffin Castle until the future bishop was more than two years of age.

BARRY, RT. REV. JOHN, D.D.,

(Second Bp. of Savannah.)

Born 1799 (¹), in the Townland of Coolamaine, Parish of Oylegate, Co. Wexford, Ireland (²); ordained September 24, 1825, in Charleston, S. C., by Bp. England; consecrated at Baltimore, August 2, 1857, by Abp. Kenrick of Baltimore, assisted by Bp. Portier, and Bp. Neumann, sermon by Bp. McGill. He went to Europe for his health in July, 1859.

Died at Paris, France, November 19, 1859 (³).

(1) "The date is unknown, . There was no baptismal register kept at Oylegate at that time, as was ascertained when search was made for the birth date of a younger brother, the late Judge Patrick Barry, of California. My father, George Barry, was the second youngest brother, and so far as I can learn, the first of the family whose baptism is recorded in the local register. There can be no possibility of ascertaining the exact date *****"

(Letter of Rev. Sylvester Barry to the author, dated from Bedigo, Victoria, Australia, August 13, 1895.)

(2) A letter from Dr. Browne, Bp. of Ferns, Ireland, says: "The place of Bp. Barry's birth was a comfortable farmer's home on the south side of the river Slaney, near the village of Oylegate, midway between Wexford and Enniscorthy, about six miles from the latter place. He was not born, as has been said, in Barony of Forth. He visited his native place in 1852, and old people describe him as—of middle size, greatly worn, and a good preacher. The house is yet standing, and his relatives are yet there, the registers were begun in 1803 . I would refer you to his nephew, Rev. S. Barry, etc. *****"

(3) He did not resign his See as has been published.

A copy of the death register, at the house of the brothers of "St. John of God," Paris, where he died, reads: "Died November 19, 1859, at No. 19, Rue Oudinot, Paris, Maison de Santé de Ste Jean de Dieu, of heart disease, Mgr. Jean Barry, ev. de Savannah."

The disease was rather of the brain than of the heart, as he really lost his reason. The author found this to be the fact, while (some years ago) searching for a portrait of Bp. Barry, which he found in a convent in Paris. It had been taken after death, the body being robed in full pontificals and surrounded by lighted candles. This portrait was copied by Sig. Gregori, at Notre Dame University, Ind., who represented a life-like figure, wearing a béret. This sketch I had verified in Savannah, and Paris. It is now the best portrait of the Bishop existing. The original pencil sketch is in the Reuss collection, in the library of the American Catholic Historical Society, Philadelphia.

Copy of certificate of burial, and removal from cemetery, in Paris, furnished by the Authorities to the author.

"Mt. Parnasse, Paris, M. Jean Barry, ev. age de 60 ans, inhumé Nov. 22, 1859, par les soins du 10 arrondissement il a été exhumé Août 24, 1865, et transporté à Savannah, Amérique," Août 6, 1896, Signé, Roullet, conservateur."

BATZ, RT. REV. MGR. LEONARD,

(Domestic Prelate.)

Born February 7, 1826, at Arnaberg, Bavaria; was ordained October 18, 1858, at the Seminary, in Milwaukee, Wis., by Rt. Rev. John M. Henni; named Domestic Prelate July 9, 1882; invested in Milwaukee by Abp. Heiss.

BAUER, RT. REV. MGR. JOSEPH,

(Domestic Prelate, Diocese of St. Cloud.)

Born July 30, 1842, at Niederbronn, Alsace, France; ordained June 29, 1865, at Alger, by Rt. Rev. Louis Pavy, D.D.; named Very Rev. Mgr., December, 1889; named Rt. Rev. Mgr., March 1894; invested by Bp. Zardetti, at St. Cloud, Minn.; was administrator of St. Cloud from May 16, 1894, till April, 1895, also from September 19, 1896; still remains administrator until that See shall be otherwise provided for.

BAYLEY, MT. REV. JAMES ROOSEVELT, D.D.,

(First Bp. Newark, eighth Abp. Baltimore.)

Born August 23, 1814, at Rye, a village near New York City; ordained March 2, 1844, in old St. Peter's pro Cathedral, New York City, by Bp. Hughès; consecrated in New York City, October 30, 1853, by Abp. Cajetan Bedini, Ap. Nuncio to the United States, assisted by Bp. Rappe, and Bp. McCloskey, of Albany; transferred to Baltimore, as Abp. July 30, 1872 ⁽¹⁾. Died at the Bishop's House, Newark, N. J., October 3, 1877, and was buried at Emmitsburg, Md., beside his aunt, Mother Seton, Abp. Bayley was a convert, received into the church, April 28, 1842, at the Church of the Gesu; Rome, Italy, was confirmed, and received the Holy Eucharist from the hands of Cardinal Fransoni in the Chapel of "St. Ignatius," Rome.

(1) Invested with the Pallium, October 19, 1872 (Sunday), at the hands of Bishop Wood of Philadelphia, who celebrated Pontifical Mass in the Cathedral at Baltimore.

BAZIN, RT. REV. JOHN STEPHEN, D.D. (1),

(Third Bp. of Vincennes, Ind.)

Born October 15, 1796, at Duerne (Rhône), near Lyons, France; ordained July 22, 1822 ⁽²⁾, in the Cathedral at Lyons, France, by Mgr. Morel de Mons, Abp. of Avignon (Vaucluse); consecrated in Cathedral at Vincennes, October 24, 1847, by Bp. Portier, assisted by Bp. Purcell, and Bp. Hailandière, (resigned) ⁽³⁾.

Died Easter Sunday, April 23, 1848, at Vincennes.

(1) Gams, "Index Episcoporum," gives the name as John Sebastian.

(2) It has been published that he was ordained in 1824. His Grace the Archbishop of Lyons, by letter of March, 1896, gives me the copy of the record, containing dates given above. There is a letter in the "Annales," dated 1831, which gives some facts concerning him. "Nothing more definite can be found . He left Havre, for America in October, 1830, being already a priest ordained in France, probably in Lyons."

Mr. Henry S. Canthorn in a sketch published in ———, says; "Shortly after his ordination he was induced by Bp. Portier, to come to the diocese of Mobile (1830), being then about 34 years old *****."

(3) Bp. Reynolds, of Charleston, preached at the consecration.

BEAVAN, RT. REV. THOMAS, D.D.,

(Second Bishop of Springfield, Mass.)

Born March 1, 1851, in Springfield, Mass.; ordained December 18, 1875, at Montreal, Canada, by Most Rev. Edward Charles Fabre, D.D., of Montreal; consecrated at Springfield, Mass., October 18, 1892, by Most Rev. John J. Williams, of Boston, assisted by Rt. Rev. Denis M. Bradley, of Manchester, N. H., and Rt. Rev. J. S. Michaud, Coadr. of Burlington, Vt.

(Furnished by Bp. Beavan.)

BECKER, RT. REV. THOMAS ANDREW, D.D.,

(Baptized Thomas Albert, took Andrew in confirmation.)

Born December 20, 1832, at Pittsburg, Pa.; ordained June 18, 1859, at Rome, Italy, by Cardinal Patrizzi; consecrated at Baltimore, Md., August 16, 1868, having been appointed Bp. of Wilmington, Del., March 3, 1868, consecrator, Abp. Spalding, of Baltimore, assisted by Bp. McGill, and Bp. Whelan, of Wheeling; translated to Savannah, Ga., March 26, 1886.

(Furnished by Bp. Becker.)

BENEDICT, RT. REV. ABBOT, O. S. B.,

(Baptized Jacobus Menges.)

Born July 31, 1840, at Obermohr, Bavaria; professed at "St. Vincent's" Abbey, Pa., October 5, 1872; ordained December 21, 1872, at St. Vincent's Abbey, by Rt. Rev. Michael Domenec, of Pittsburg; elected Abbot of St. Benedict's Abbey, Cullman, Ala., September 29, 1891; election confirmed by Rome, December 15, 1891; blessed January 27, 1892, by Rt. Rev. J. O'Sullivan, of Mobile, Ala.

(Furnished by the Abbot.)

BENOIT, RT. REV. MGR. JULIAN,

(Domestic Prelate.)

Born October 17, 1808, at Septmoncel (a village in Jura Mountains), France; ordained April 25, 1837, at the Seminary, Emmetsburg, Md., by Rt. Rev. Simon G. Brute, of Vincennes, Ind.; named Rt. Rev. Mgr. and Domestic Prelate, June 12, 1883; invested by Bp. Dwenger, at Ft. Wayne, August 16, 1883. Died at Ft. Wayne, January 26, 1885; had been administrator Sede Vacante, after death of Bp. Luers.

(Furnished Mgr. Benoit; MSS. in Reuss collection.)

BERNARD, RT. REV. ABBOT, O. S. B.,

(Baptized Francis Locnikar.)

Born September 28, 1848, at Bitnje, Austria; professed October 13, 1872; ordained December 22, 1872, at St. Paul, Minn., by Rt. Rev. Thomas L. Grace, D.D.; elected Abbot of "St. John's Abbey," Minn., May 7, 1890; election confirmed by Rome, July 6, 1890; blessed August 27, 1890, at the Abbey, by Rt. Rev. Otto Zardette, of St. Cloud.

Died at the Abbey, November 7, 1894.

(Verified by the Abbot Bernard.)

BESSONIES, RT. REV. MGR. AUGUST,
(Domestic Prelate.)

Born June 17, 1815, at Alzac, Dept. du Lot, Province of Quercy, France; ordained February 22, 1840, at Vincennes, Ind., by Rt. Rev. Celestine Hailandiere, of Vincennes; named Rt. Rev. Mgr., January 22, 1884; invested at Vincennes, by Bp. Chatard.

(From Mgr. Bessonies.)

BLANC, RT. REV. ANTHONY, D.D.,
(Fourth Bp., First Abp. of New Orleans, La.)

(1) Born October 11, 1792, at Sury le Comtal, near Lyons, Dept. Loire, France; ordained July 22, 1816 (shortly before his departure from France), in the Chapel of the Grand Séminaire, Lyons, France, by Bp. Dubourg, of New Orleans, U. S., who was visiting France⁽²⁾. He was consecrated at N. O., November 22, 1835, by Bp. Rosati of St. Louis, assisted by Bp. Purcell, of Cincinnati, and Bp. Portier of Mobile; promoted Abp. July 19, 1850; received the Pallium from the hands of Bp. Portier, February 16, 1851; was administrator Sede Vacante, of N. O., 1833, till his consecration.

Died (suddenly) at New Orleans, Wednesday, June 20, 1860.

(Archives of Dio. N. O.)

(1) Data from the Abp. of Lyons.

(2) The ordinations were performed, mostly, by the Bp. of Grenoble. The Abp. of Lyons being (exiled) in Rome, since the downfall of Napoleon, Vic-Gen. Courtay, was administrator. There is no record at New Orleans nor at Paris. A clergyman of the "S. J." made searches for this work, and writes, viz.: "At that time (Revolutionary and Imperial Epoch) in France, ecclesiastical affairs were in great confusion. Few, if any, records were kept; ecclesiastical jurisdiction was suspended. There was no ecclesiastical journalism. The memoirs of the time are silent. The Archbishop of Paris died 1811. The See was vacant. Cardl. Maury was at Rome, under censure, Cardl. Fesch, was an exile, and the affairs of that See were settled only in 1822, during which interval Episcopal functions were performed by any available bishops in good standing. An instance is in case of the Cure d'Ars, who received the Deaconates at Lyons from the Bp. of Grenoble, and had to go to the latter city for the priesthood." Another Father, S. J., thinks he was ordained by Bp. Dubourg, who in that year ordained at both seminaries at Lyons, and was in fact a great figure in that Diocese in 1816. The whole was verified by letter of Abp. of Lyons, to the author, dated March 12, 1896. There is no published account of this data in U. S., so far as can be found after a long search by the Bishops of the Province of New Orleans.

The "Promoteur Catholique," February, 1851, gives the Séminaire as the place of ordination. The Bp. of Grenoble (1895) writes that no records exist of the ordination in the archives of that See, and he is convinced that Bp. Dubourg performed the ceremony.

The three names sent to Rome for the vacant See of New Orleans were Rev. Ant. Blanc, Rev. John M. Odin, Rev. M. Loras. Letter of Bp. England, to Dr. O'Connor, dated Feb., 25, 1835; in "Records, American Cath. Hist. Society." Phila. 1897.

BLANCHET, RT. REV. AUGUSTIN MAGLIORE
ALEXANDER, D.D.,

(First Bp. of Walla Walla,—Nesqually.)

Born August 22, 1797, at St. Pierre, Riviere du Süd, Prov. Quebec, Canada; ordained June 3, 1821, in the Chapel of the Ursuline Convent, at Quebec, by Rt. Rev. J. O. Plessis, Bp. of Quebec; consecrated at Montreal, Canada, September 27, 1846 (Bull of appointment dated July 24, 1846), by Bp. Ignace Bourget of Montreal, assisted by Mgr. Remigius Gaulin (titular, "Regispolitianus," later, Bp. of Kingston), and Mgr. John Charles Prince, coadjutor to the Bp. of Montreal. On May 31, 1850, the See of Walla Walla was suppressed and that of Nesqually erected. It is generally given that he was translated to the new See on that date, but the Roman "Pontificio Annoario," gives the date as June 28. He was Administrator of the old Sees of "Ft. Hall" and "Colville," until they were suppressed with Walla Walla. He resigned in February, 1879, and was translated to the Titular See of "Ibora."

Died February 25, 1887, at Vancouver, Oregon.

(Furnished by Bp. Blanchet, 1884, MS. in "Reuss," Collection.)

"St. Peter's Church" was under construction during his residence at Walla Walla, but as he was forced in January, 1848, to leave his See, in consequence of a war with the Cayuse nation, it was hindered from completion.

Lucas' Catholic Directory, for 1853, gives October, 1850, as time of transfer to Nesqually, but the "Pontificio Annoario" is the most reliable.

BLANCHET, MT. REV. FRANCIS NORBERT, D.D.,

(First Bp. of Oregon.)

Born September 30, 1795, in the Parish of St. Pierre, Riviere du Süd, Prov. Quebec, Canada; ordained July 18, 1819, at Quebec, by Mgr. Joseph Octave, Plessis Bp. of Quebec; consecrated at Montreal, Canada, July 25, 1845, by Mgr. Ignace Bourget, of Montreal, assisted by Mgr. Pierre Flavien, Tourgeon, Coadjutor of Quebec, and Rt. Rev. Michael Power, of Toronto. By Brief dated December 1, 1843, he was made Titular Bp. of "Philadelphiensis," but by letter of May 4, 1844 ⁽¹⁾, was translated to the Titular See of "Drasa," and named Vicar Apostolic of Oregon. On July 24, 1846, he was named (First) Bp. of Oregon City, and on July 29, 1850, promoted (First) Abp. of Oregon City. Resigned February 27, 1880, and on December 10, of that year, named Bp. of "Amida," i. p. i; he was administrator Sede Vacante, of the See's of Oregon, which had been erected, but never had any Bishop, viz., "Princess Charlotte," and "New Caldonia" (later suppressed).

Died at Portland, Oregon, June 18, 1883.

(1) Dr. Shea gives May 7. The above is from the Diocesan Archives. The reason for change in the Titular See, was that confusion might arise out of the duplication of the title "Philadelphia."

BOFF, RT. REV. MGR. FELIX MARY,

(Domestic Prelate, Diocese of Cleveland).

Born at Haegen, Alsace, France, on January 25, 1831; ordained March 26, 1853, at Cleveland, O., by Bp. Rappe; named Rt. Rev. and Domestic Prelate, July 28, 1885; invested November 8, 1885, by Bp. Gilmour, at Cleveland.

(Furnished by Mgr. Boff.)

BONACUM, RT. REV. THOMAS, D.D.,

(First Bp. of Lincoln, Neb.)

Born January 29, 1847, near Thurles, Co. Tipperrary, Ireland; ordained June 18, 1870, at St. Louis, Mo., by Bp. Joseph Melcher, of Green Bay; consecrated at St. Louis, November 30, 1887, by Mt. Rev. P. R. Kenrick, of St. Louis, assisted by Rt. Rev. James O'Conner, of Omaha, and Rt. Rev. Louis M. Fink, of Kansas City, Kan.

(Furnished by Bp. Bonacum.)

BORGESS, RT. REV. CASPAR HENRY, D.D.,

(Third Bp. of Detroit, Mich.)

Born August 1, 1824, at Koppenberg, near Essen (Oldenburg), Hanover, Germany; ordained December 8, 1847, at Cincinnati, O., by Bp. Purcell. He was consecrated Bp. of "Calydon," i. p. i., and Coadjutor and Administrator of Detroit, on April 24, 1870, at Cincinnati, O., by Bp. Rosencrans, assisted by Bp. Feehan, and Bp. Luers; became Bp. of Detroit, December 27, 1871; resigned April 16, 1888, and received the Titular See of "Phacusa."

Died May 3, 1890, at Kalamazoo, Mich., having been stricken with paralysis on April 27 of that year.

(From Diocese of Detroit.)

BOURGADE, RT. REV. PETER, D.D.,

(Vicar Apostolic, of Arizona.)

Born October 17, 1845, in the Parish of Vollore-Ville, France; ordained on November 30, 1869, at Santa Fe, New Mexico, by Abp. Lamy; consecrated at Santa Fe, May 1, 1885, by Abp. Lamy, assisted by Coadjutor Abp.

Salpointe, and Vic. Ap. Machebeuf, of Colorado; appointed Vic. Ap. of Arizona, January 23, 1885, and Titular Bp. of "Thaumacum" on February 7, 1885; July (1), 1897, made Bp. of Tucson, Arizona.

Hoffmann's "Catholic Directory," gives the title as Bp. of "Doryla," an error. The above is given the author by Bp. Bourgade himself.

(1) News received just as sheets were going to press, too late to verify the date.

BRADLEY, RT. REV. DENIS MARY, D.D.,

(First Bishop of Manchester, N. H.)

Born February 25, 1846, in the Parish of Castleisland, Co. Kerry, Ireland; ordained June 3, 1871, at St. Joseph's Seminary, Troy, N. Y., by Bishop McQuaid, of Rochester; consecrated at St. Joseph's Church, Manchester, N. H., June 11, 1884, by Abp. Williams, assisted by Bishops Goesbriand and Moore.

(Furnished by Bp. Bradley.)

BRADY, RT. REV. JOHN, D.D.,

(Titular Bishop of "Alabanda," and Auxiliary Bishop of Boston, Mass.)

Born April 11, 1842 (1), at Crosserlough, Co. Caven, Ireland; ordained December 4, 1864, at All Hallow's College, Dublin, Ireland, by Rt. Rev. John Francis Whelan, Bp. of Bombay, India; consecrated at Boston, August 5, 1891, by Abp. Williams, assisted by Bp. O'Reilly, of Springfield, Mass., and Bp. Harkins, of Providence, R. I.

(1) From original baptismal register. "Sponsors, Francis Brady and Mary Brady."

(Verified by Bp. Brady.)

BRENNAN, RT. REV. THOMAS FRANCIS, D.D.,

(First Bp. of Dallas, Texas.)

Born October, 1853, at Tipperrary, Ireland; ordained July 4, 1880, at Brixen, in Tyrol, by the Prince Bishop of Brixen; consecrated at Erie, Pa., April 5, 1891, having been appointed "Bp. of Dallas," on December 22, 1890; consecrator, Bp. Mullen, of Erie, assisted by Bp. McGovern of Harrisburg, and Bp. Phelan, of Pittsburg; transferred to the titular See of "Utile," on February 1, 1893, and made Coadjutor to the See of St. John, New Foundland. Removed for cause, and called to Rome, when Bp. Howley was made Bp. of St. John; was to have been sent to a college at Constantinople, but lack of money and the Turkish troubles caused his being retained at Rome, where he resides at this date. January 1, 1897. He was named V. Rev. Mgr. at Rome, in January, 1888.

(Furnished by Bp. Mullen and Rev. James Brennan.)

BRONDEL, RT. REV. JOHN BAPTIST, D.D.,

(First Bishop of Helena, Montana.)

Born February 23, 1842, at Bruges, West Flanders, Belgium; ordained December 17, 1864, at Mechlin, Belgium, by Cardinal Engelbert Stercks; consecrated "Bp. of Vancouver" (B. C.), at Victoria, Vanc. Is., December 14, 1879, by Abp. Seghers, of Oregon, assisted by Bp. Junger, of Nesqually, and Bp. Louis D'Herbomez, of the "N. W. Territory," British Columbia. Bp. Lootens was also present. By a Bull, of April 7, 1883, he was made Administrator of the "Vicariate," of Montana, and on March 7, 1884, was translated to Helena, as first Bishop of that See.

(Data from Bp. Brondel.)

BROCHU, RT. REV. MGR. GEORGE ELZEAR,

(Protonotary Apostolic and Domestic Prelate.)

Born October 2, 1842, at St. Anselme, Province of Quebec, Canada; ordained August 9, 1868, at Montreal, Canada, by Abp. Ignace Bourget; named "Rt. Rev. Mgr.," (Dom. Prel.) at Rome, May 15, 1890, and invested in that city by Cardinal Ledochowski. In a letter to the author, Mgr. Brochu, writes: " * * * 11 Mai, 1890, j'ai fait profession de Foi, et prete le Serment fidelite suivant l'usage du College du Protonotaries Apostolique."

BRUTE-DE-REMUR, RT. REV. SIMON WILLIAM GABRIEL, D.D.,

(First Bp. of Vincennes, Ind.)

Born March 20, 1779, at Renués, France; ordained Saturday before Trinity Sunday (June 11), 1808, at Paris, France, by Mgr. Claudius Andre (retired Bp. of Quimper); consecrated at St. Louis, Mo., October 28, 1834, by Bp. Flaget, of Ky., assisted by Bp. Rosati, of St. Louis, and Bp. Purcell, of Cincinnati.

Died at Vincennes, Ind., June 26, 1839.

(Verified at Vincennes.)

BURKE, RT. REV. MAURICE FRANCIS, D.D.,

(Bp. of Cheyenne, Wyoming.)

Born May 5, 1845, on farm land, in Co. Limerick, Ireland ⁽¹⁾; ordained May 22, 1875, at Rome, Italy, by Cardinal Patrizzi; consecrated in Cathedral of the Holy Name, Chicago, Ill., October 28, 1887, by Abp. Feehan, assisted by Bp. McClosky, of Louisville, Ky., and Bp.

Cosgrove, of Davenport, Iowa; transferred to the See of St. Joseph, Mo., June 19, 1893.

(1) Bp. Burke came to America in the fourth year of his age, and does not remember the name of the Parish in which he was born and baptized.

(Letter to the author.)

BURKE, RT. REV. THOMAS MARTIN ALOYSIUS, DD.,
(Bp. of Albany, N. Y.)

Born January 10, 1840, in Utica, N. Y. (?) ⁽¹⁾; ordained June 30, 1864, at St. Mary's Seminary, Baltimore, by Bp. Francis McFarland, of Hartford; consecrated at Albany, July 1, 1894, by Abp. Corrigan, of N. Y., assisted by Bp. McQuaid, of Rochester, and Bp. Ludden, of Syracuse; was administrator Sede Vacante, of Albany, after death of Bp. McNierny; created Knight of the Holy Sepulchre, January, 27, 1890 ⁽²⁾; created Knight of the Grand Cross, June, 1894.

(1) His early years were passed in "Utica" (Official Souvenir of Consecration). It is also stated that he was born in Ireland.

(2) Hoffmann's Directory gives June, 1890, as month and year. The above is from the "Official Souvenir of Consecration."

BUTLER, RT. REV. THADEUS JOSEPH, D.D.,
(Bp. Elect. of Concordia, Kansas.)

Born November 1, 1833, in the City of Limerick, Ireland; ordained July 25, 1856, by Abp. Lugi Bussi, in his private Chapel, Rome, Italy; elected Bp. of Concordia, about July 14, 1897. (The Bulls were found among his papers. "It is too late to learn particulars before your book goes to press.") He was to have been consecrated by Cardinal Satolli, in the Church of "San Giovanni Laterano," at Rome, on Sunday July 18, 1897. Died at the hospital conducted by the Sisters of the "Little Company of Mary," No. 45, Via Castelfidardo, Rome, Italy; obsequies held in Church of Sacred Heart. Some American friends in Rome shipped the body to Chicago and was buried in Calvary Cemetery.

Dr. Butler had been Chaplain to Col. Mulligan's "Irish Brigade" during the late Civil war. Left Chicago for Rome, June 27, 1897. His obsequies were held on the day he was to have been consecrated.

BYRNE, RT. REV. ANDREW, D.D.,
(Bp. of Little Rock, Ark.)

Born December 5, 1802; at Naven, Parish of Kilmesan, Co. Meath, Ireland; ordained November 11, 1827, at Charleston, S. C., by Bp. England; consecrated at New York City, on March 10, 1844, having been elected November 28, 1843. The consecrator was Bp. Hughes, of N. Y., assisted by Bp. Fenwick, of Boston, and Bp. Whelan, of Richmond.

Died June 10, 1862, at Helena, Arkansas.

(1) Coogan's "History of Meath," gives the year of birth as 1798, but this is an error. (Letter from Meath). Shea, Clarke and O'Connell, give 1802.

BYRNE, RT. REV. THOMAS SEBASTIAN, D.D.,

(Bp. of Nashville, Tenn.)

Born July 19, 1841, at Hamilton, Ohio; ordained May 22, 1869, in the Chapel at Mt. St. Mary's Seminary, Cincinnati, O., by Abp. Purcell; consecrated at Nashville, July 25, 1894, by Abp. Elder, of Cincinnati, assisted by Bp. Watterson, of Columbus, O., and Bp. Maes, of Covington, Ky.

CAILLET, RT. REV. MGR. LOUIS EUGENE,

(Domestic Prelate, Diocese of St. Paul, Minn.)

Born September 24, 1832, at Lyons, France; ordained August 12, 1857, at St. Paul, Minn., by Bp. Smythe, of Dubuque; named Dom. Prelate, by Rome; invested August, 1892, by Bishop Ireland, in St. Mary's Church, St. Paul, Minn.

Died at the Seminary, St. Paul, Minn., November 28, 1897.

CANTWELL, RT. REV. MGR. NICHOLAS,

(Domestic Prelate, Diocese of Philadelphia, Pa.)

Born May 6, 1813, at Clonmel, Co. Tipperary, Ireland; ordained November 4, 1841, at Philadelphia, by Bp. F. P. Kenrick, named Dom. Prelate (date of diploma) February 4, 1890; invested March 25, 1890, by Abp. Ryan.

CARRELL, RT. REV. GEORGE ALOYSIUS, D.D.,

(Bp. of Covington, Ky.)

Born June 13, 1803, and baptized in St. Joseph's Church, Philadelphia, Pa. (1); ordained December 20, 1827, in St. Augustine's Church, Philadelphia, by Bp. Henry Conwell (2); consecrated at Cincinnati, O., on November 1, 1853, by Abp. Purcell, assisted by Bp. Henni, of Milwaukee, and Bp. Lefevre, of Detroit.

Died at Covington, Ky., September 25, 1868.

(1) From Baptismal Records, St. Joseph's Church, Philadelphia, Pa.

(2) Dr. Shea, in his "History of the Church in the U. S.," gives the year as 1829. No date is given, every historical or biographical work published on the subject, gives the same year. The above date and year, I copied from the original certificate of ordination in the autograph of Bp. Conwell, which was lately found during a search made especially for this work. If ever the certificate was used, the error of the year as usually given may have arisen from the fact that Dr. Conwell had written, first 1828, and then wrote "7," over the final "8," which made the figures seem like "1829," but, the fact that the date was never mentioned makes it seem improbable that the certificate was ever used. Again, Bp. Conwell fixes the year to a certainty by writing, "Millesimo, Octingentisimo, Vigesimo, septimo die vero Mensis, etc.," over his signature, as ordaining Prelate. Certificate copied June 19, 1896. F. X. R.

"He entered the 'S. J.' August 19, 1835 (letter from western province of the S. J.).

"Bp. Carrell was a novice at the Whitemarsh House of the S. J. in Maryland, but left the Society; he returned, however, after his ordination. The records of Whitemarsh were all destroyed by fire in 1852."

"There are no Records at Georgetown."

Genealogy of Bp. Carrell furnished by favor of Mr. Michael Jenkins, of Baltimore. John Clater, born 1678, married Elizabeth Mary O'Neal, born 1686, died 1762, had issue, one child, viz., Elizabeth Mary, who married Thomas Carrell, born 1723, died 1786, had issue, Daniel, born 1761, and Edward, born 1765, died 1807; Edward married Mary Byrne in 1789, and Daniel married Elizabeth Carleton. John, a third child, married Mary Judith Moore. The children of the latter were, Elizabeth, born 1788, died 1818, married Fielding Lucas; Ann, born———, married Thomas Hurley; John, ————, married Sarah Cauffmann; Louise, born 1805, died 1882, married Thomas C. Jenkins, who was born in 1802, married 1830, died 1881; George Aloysius, who became Bp. of Covington.

CARROLL, MT. REV. JOHN, D.D.,

(Baltimore.)

Born January 8, 1735, at Upper Marlboro, Prince George Co., Md.; ordained February 14, 1761, at Liege ⁽¹⁾, Belgium, by Mgr. Petro Ludovico Jaquet, D.D. ⁽²⁾; appointed Superior of the American Missions, June 9, 1784, consecrated first Bp. with Sede, at Baltimore, Md., on August 15, 1790, in the chapel at Lulworth Castle, Dorset, England, by Rt. Rev. Charles Walmesley, Vic. Ap. of the London district, assisted by Rev. Charles Plowden (sac.), and Rev. James Porter (sac.); promoted first Abp. April 8, 1808.

Died at Baltimore, December 3, 1815.

(1) Dr. Shea (DeCourey) edition 1879, p. 38, says Bp. Carroll was ordained (no date given) in 1759, search of the records at Liege was made by His Grace the Abp. of that See, which disproves this much copied error. In a letter the Archbishop gives a copy of the record, viz.; "Sub Deacon, October 26, 1760, by Bp. Jaquet," "Deacon, December 20, 1760, by Bp. Jaquet," "Priest, February 14, 1761, by Jaquet," "Vite Registrum Sigilli," "PP. 123-134-137, in Cancellaria Episcopale" "Leodii, hususque costoditum," "Datum, Mai 1895, M. Rutten, v. Gl."

(2) The ordaining prelate, Bp. Jaquet, was Titular Bp. of Hippone, and Suffragan of the Cathedral Church of Liege (Canon).

CHABRAT, RT. REV. GUY IGNATIUS, D.D.,
(Louisville, Ky.)

Born December 28, 1787, at Chambre, France; ordained December 25, 1811, at St. Rose Church (present Springfield, P. O.), Ky., by Bishop Flaget; consecrated at Bardstown, Ky., July 20, 1834, by Bishop Flaget, assisted by Bishop David, and Rev. R. P. Miles, O.P. (later Bishop of Nashville). Dr. Chabrat had been appointed to the Titular See of "Boлено," and Coadjutor to Bishop David, but the latter had resigned his See, and Bishop Flaget having been restored (See David and Flaget), Bishop Chabrat had been reappointed as Coadjutor to Dr. Flaget. He resigned in 1847, because of failing sight, kept his Titular See, and retired to France.

Died November 21, 1868, at Mauriac, France, being at the time totally blind.

CHANCHE, RT. REV. JOHN JOSEPH, D.D.,
(Natchez, Miss.)

Born October 4, 1795, at Baltimore, Md., parents, John Chanche and Catharine Provost; received Tonsure in 1810, from Abp. Carroll, minor orders from Abp. Neale; ordained Priest June 5, 1819, at Baltimore, by Abp. Marachal; consecrated at Baltimore, March 14, 1841, by Abp. Eccleston, assisted by Bp. Fenwick, of Boston, and Bp. Hughes of New York, Bp. Hughes preaching the sermon. An extract from the journal of Bp. Chanche says: "I started for the South on March 27, accompanied by my brother James, who went with me as far as Cincinnati, I descended the river as far as New Orleans, ****."

Died July 23, 1852, at Frederick, Md.

CHAPELLE, MT. REV. PLACIDE LOUIS, D.D.,
(Santa Fe, N. M.)

Born August 28, 1842, at Mende, Dept. Lozere, France; ordained June 29, 1865, at Baltimore, Md., by Abp. Spalding; appointed August 21, 1891, Titular Bp. of "Arabissus," and Coadjutor of Santa Fe; consecrated at Baltimore, November 1, 1891, by Cardinal Gibbons, assisted by Abp. Salpointe, of Santa Fe, and Bp. Kain, of Wheeling; promoted Titular Abp. of "Sebaste," May 10, 1893, and succeeded to the See of Santa Fe on resignation of Abp. Salpointe, January 7, 1894. Papal Brief of appointment as Archbishop of New Orleans, La., dated December 1, 1897; preconized March 24, 1898.

CHATARD, RT. REV. FRANCIS SILAS, D.D.,
(Vincennes, Ind.)

Born at Baltimore, Maryland, December 13, 1834, ordained June, 1862, at St. John Lateran Church, Rome, Italy, by Cardinal Patrizzi; consecrated, Rome, in the Church of the American College, May 12, 1878, by Cardinal Franchi, Prefect of "Propaganda," assisted by Mgr. Santori, Bp. of Fano, Italy, Mgr. Agnette, President of the "Academia Ecclesiastica," at Rome; named Rt. Rev. Mgr. in 1875, Cameriere Segreto.

CHEVERUS, RT. REV. JEAN, LOUIS ANN MAGDELEN LEFEBRE, DE-, D.D.,

(Boston, Mass.)

Born January 28, 1768, at Mayenne, Dept. Mayenne, Diocese of Laval, France, parents, John Vincent Maria Lefebre de-Cheverus, "Judex generalis," in Mayenne, for the Province of Lower Maine, and Anna Lemarchand de-Noyers. He made his first communion in 1779, received the first Tonsure at the age of 12 years, from the hands of Mgr. de Herce, Bp. of Dol, France; ordained December 18, 1790, in Paris. The record does not give the name of the ordaining Prelate. It is thought it was by Mgr. Gonssans, Bp. of Mans; he was placed (parochus urbis) at Mayenne, was made Vicar General; left France, September 11, 1792, and arrived in England the same month. October 3, 1796, he arrived in Boston, was elected Bp. April 8, 1808, and consecrated November 1, 1810, at Baltimore, Md., by Bp. Carroll, assisted by Coadjutor Bp. Neale, and Bp. Egan, of Philadelphia; sermon by Rev. Wm. V. Harold, of Philadelphia; transferred to France, as Bp. of Montauban, January 15, 1823; transferred to Bordeaux, as Abp., July 30, 1826; created Cardinal, February 1, 1836.

Died at Bordeaux, France, July 19, 1836.

CLANCY, RT. REV. WILLIAM, D.D.,

(Coadjutor to Charleston, S. C.)

Born February, 1802 ⁽¹⁾; (baptized February 14) ⁽²⁾, at Cork, Ireland; he entered Maynooth College, September, 1, 1819; received the Tonsure ⁽³⁾, May 20, 1821, (Fer. iii, within Pentecost week), and minor orders next day from Bp. Murray, Sub-Deacon, May 22, 1823 (Fer. V, within the octave from Pentecost); Deacon on the 23d, and Priest, May 24, 1823, by dispensation of age, at the hands of Bp. Murray, of Dublin. He was consecrated Bishop of "Oriense," i. p. i., and Coadjutor of Charleston, on December 21, 1834 ⁽⁴⁾, at Carlow, Ireland, by Rt. Rev. Edward Nolan, of Kildare, assisted by Bp. Michael Slattery, of Cashel, and Bp. William Kinsella, of Ossary.

On April 13, 1837 ⁽⁵⁾, he was transferred as Vicar Apostolic to British Guiana, from where he was removed for cause in 1843 ⁽⁶⁾. It is certain that his Titular See was taken from him ⁽⁷⁾. He retired to Ireland, where he died, at Cork, June 19, 1847. Buried in the vault of Cork Cathedral.

(1) I received two certificates of baptism from the Cathedral (SS. Mary and Anne, Shandon) at Cork. The first gives, "Parents, Daniel Clancey and Mary Geary," with the date as given in the text. The second gives the date of baptism, August 28, 1796, with parents, Patrick Clancy and Mary Hernon. This cannot be the correct entry, as the inscription on his tomb gives his age as "45 years."

(2) The Rev. Michael McCarthy, of Cork, gives "Clarence St. Cork" as the place of birth.

(3) All data from the Records, by especial search made by kindness of V. Rev. Canon Cotter V. G., and V. Rev. Daniel Coghlan, Professor at Maynooth College.

(4) The Record of Consecration received from the Diocese of Kildare, Dr. Paul Cullen, of the Irish College, Rome, was elected Coadjutor to Bp. England, and the Bulls were made out, giving the Titular See of "Oran," a letter of Bp. England to Rev. Dr. Fitzgerald, at Rome, dated from Cork, September 17, 1834 (see Records, Am. Cath. Hist'l Soc., Phila., Vol. VIII), says: "I leave Dr. Cullen's Bulls with my brother Edward, in Cork. I have heard that he declines. This I cannot believe, after our conversation in Rome, *****"

The N. Y. "Catholic Diary" for 1834, says: "Rev. Dr. McSweeney, now in Paris, was appointed Coadjutor to Bp. England, but refused." Dr. Clancy received his Bulls in November, 1834, and Bp. England desired him to come to Charleston for consecration, and he had made all arrangements to that end, he was greatly mortified that the consecration had taken place in Ireland.  He arrived in Charleston, November 16, 1835. Bp. England made him his V. G., and sent him to Hayti on some business. He left Charleston, December 28, 1835, for New York, from there to sail for Port au Prince.

(5) He attended the Baltimore Council with Bp. England, after his transfer, and left for his new labors, via England, leaving Charleston on the Steamer Columbia, on Thursday, June 20, 1837, for New York to Liverpool, arrived in Cork, July 24, 1837. October 10, left for Dublin, thence to Liverpool, took passage on the ship Sandbach to Georgetown, B. G., taking with him three Priests, Rev. Thomas Morgan, Rev. William Bates, Rev. John Cullen, also three students, Messrs. Daly, McDonnell, and Craig, these he ordained at Georgetown, B. G. This was the first ordination ever performed in that country.

He landed in Georgetown on the second Sunday in Advent, December 10, 1838, and on following Sunday read the Pope's Brief in Latin and English.

(6) Removal. Concerning the deposition of Dr. Clancy from office in Br. Guana very little has been said. Bp. Butler writes (September 13, 1895), "There is no Record here at Georgetown." Carlow College, Ireland, has no record. Gams, "Series Episcoporum," gives it thus: "1847 (1846 ?)." The facts are discovered in the MSS., copied in Rome, by the Archivist of the American Cath. Hist'l Society, of Phila. (Pa.), and are thus: Dr. Clancy was desposed, in 1843, for acts unbecoming his office, and Dr. John Thomas Hynes was named Administrator Ap. awaiting confirmation as Vicar Ap. Dr. Clancy refused to yield, retained possession of the Cathedral Church, until the coming of Dr. Hynes to Br. Guiana, when he finally left that country in July, 1846, going back to Ireland, an excommunicated man, deprived of all titles and faculties.

CONATY, RT. REV. MGR. THOMAS J., D.D.,

(Domestic Prelate, Rector Catholic University.)

Born at Kilnaleck, Co. Caven, Ireland, August 1, 1847; ordained at Montreal, Canada, December 21, 1872, by Bishop Bourget, of that See; received the degree of D.D. in January 1889, at the celebration of the Centenary of Georgetown College; appointed Rector of the Catholic University, Washington, D. C., November 23, 1896; named Rt. Rev. Mgr. and Dom. Prel., June 27, 1897; was invested in the Purple, at the meeting of the Bishops, in October, 1897.

CONCANNEN, RT. REV. RICHARD LUKE, O.P.,

(New York.)

Born, 1740 ? ⁽¹⁾, in Co. Roscommon, Ireland ⁽¹⁾; ordained December 22, 1770 ⁽²⁾, at the Lateran Basilica, Rome, Italy, by Mgr. Francesco Matthejo, Patriarch of Alexandria; consecrated, at Rome, in the church of ⁽³⁾ St. Catharine of Sienna, on April 24, 1808, by Cardl. Michele de Pietro, assisted by Mgr. Tommasso Arezzo, Abp. of Seleucia, and Mgr. Benedetto Sinibaldi, Abp. of Ephesus.

Died June 18, 1810, at Naples, Italy, buried in the vault of the church of St. Dominec, at Naples.

(1) The same search has been made for years to secure the birth data, in vain; no records seem to exist (see Connolly).

From the Superior of O. P. Convent at Lyons, France, date, March 2, 1896, signed, Fr. Ch. A. Joyan, O.P. Sec'y.: "After a lengthy search we can find nothing regarding the two illustrious Dominicans. As to the Convent of Holy Cross, in Lorraine, of which you speak (see Shea "Ch. in U. S."), where he is said to have studied, we simply know nothing of its existence, it may now be at Liège, at Donai, or at Lille, today: St. Isidore's, Rome, may have something of it, but it exists no more, nor for many years back."

From the O. P. Convent, at Drogheda, Ireland: Both Dra. Concannen and Connolly left Ireland when they were yet very young men. We have nothing of their record. Father White, grand nephew of the former, did not know anything of them. I knew him well, and he could not tell me. Bp. Concannen was born in Co. Roscommon, if as you heard from St. Clements and the Minerva Convents, Rome, they have not anything of them. Both Bishops were at Rome, and had close relations with our Convents there."

Fr.—, O.P., April 20, 1896.

(2) Ordination. The data, place and name of ordaining Prelate were lately discovered at Rome, while search was being made, especially for this work, never before being known in this country.

Addenda, 1773, February 18, examined and approved, in moribus ad confessiones; 1773, March 17, made master of Novices, at SS. Sixtus and Clementi; 1774, September 28, appointed Sub. Prior; 1781, June 20, appointed Prior and Regent of schools; 1784, June 30, appointed Prior for second time; 1779, January, Pro socius of the Master General, also Theologian of the Cassanatensian Library, Magister General.

Copy—"Liber de Consigli Conventi, S.S. Sextus e Clementi de Urbe, ab Anno 1749, ad Anno 1840." Made for this work by Fr. P. Costello, O.P. (Historian of this order.)

(3) Consecration data from Archives, Propa, Fidae, Rome.

Clarke, "Lives Deceased Bishops," gives the name of the Consecrator as Card'l Antonelli (error). Griffin in his "Life of Bp. Egan," has unfortunately copied this error, p. 24.

Copy of notice of Consecration, from Propaganda, Archives, also from "Diario Ordinario," Vol. 1, No. 34, 1808 (Cracas), April 27.

Was appointed Bishop of Kilmacduagh, Ireland, but declined. Gams, in his "Index Episcoporum," gives date of appointment March 21, 1799. Fahy, in "History and Antiquities of Kilmacduagh," says: it was by Brief of November 19, 1798.

The church of St. Catherine was on the Monte Magna-Napole, (Quirinal).

Taken from History and Antiquities of Kilmacduagh and Kelfenora by J. Fahy, D.D., V. G. (p. 378).

"He (Concannen) was appointed to succeed Dr. Dillon by brief dated November 14, 1798; he was consecrated (?) by Dr. Bray, Abp. of Cashel, without, however, taking possession of his See; he resigned it, and his resignation was accepted by the Pope, in an audience at Venice, the 15th day of May, 1800.  His portrait is preserved at the Cassanatensian Library at Rome, and bears the inscription: "Ric. Lucae, Concannen, Primus Episcopus, Neoboracen in Feodo. Amer. Provincia, Obiit Napole, in Campania, 13 Kalend, Sextel MDCCCX.

Brady, Vol. I, p. 231, says: "On the 1st of July 1792, the use of the Pallium being now conceded to Dr. Richard O'Reilly Abp. of Armagh, the Pope gave to the Master of Ceremonies the office of consigning the Pallium for Armagh to Fr. Luke Concannen, a Dominican, and Proctor for the Abp. of Armagh. ***"

Same author, page 342, in the same manner consigns to Dr. Concannen the Pallium for Dr. Troy of Dublin on the same date.

From "Episcopal Succession," Brady, Vol. II, p. 168: "Richard Luke Concannen, O.P., theologian at the Casanatensian Library in Rome, and agent of the Irish Clergy, was appointed Bp. of Kilmacduagh and Kelfenora, by brief of *, but he declined this promotion, and the Pope in audience at Venice on the 15th of May, 1800, accepted his resignation."

CONROY, RT. REV. JOHN JOSEPH, D.D.,

(Albany.)

Born June, 1819 ⁽¹⁾, at Clonaslee, Queens Co., Ireland; ordained Saturday, May 21, 1842, at Fordham, N. Y., by Bp. Hughes ⁽²⁾; consecrated at Albany, N. Y., October, 15, 1865; having been appointed by Rome, July 7, 1865. Abp. McClosky of N. Y. was consecrator, assisted by Bp. Timon of Buffalo, and Bp. Loughlin of Brooklyn; Abp. Purcell preached the sermon. He resigned October 16, 1877, and was transferred to the Titular See of Curiam, on March 22, 1878. He made his residence in New York City, where he died on November 20, 1895, and was buried at Albany. Was administrator Sede Vacante of Albany, from May, 1864, to October, 1865.

(1) "I am sure he was born in the month of June, the date I don't know."

(Letter of Mgr. Gleeson, of Diocese of Buffalo, to author.)

(2) Dr. Shea, in Appendix to DeCourcy's "History Ch. in U. S." edition 1856, gives the ordination on "January 29, 1843," Father Peyton, nephew of Bp. Conroy, gives it as above.

CONWELL, RT. REV. HENRY, D.D.,

(Philadelphia.)

Born—1745 ⁽¹⁾, in the Parish Moneymore, Drogheda, Co. Derry, Ireland; ordained either at Paris or Armagh, in 1776 ? ⁽¹⁾; consecrated at London, England, in Bp. Poynter's Private Chapel ⁽²⁾, on the 18th Sunday after Pentacost, being the feast of B.V.M., de Mercede, September 24, 1820, by Rt. Rev. William Poynter, Titular Bp. of Halia, i. p. i., and Vicar Apostolic, of London, assisted by Rev. James Yorke Bramston (Presbyteri), and Rev. Joseph Carpue (Presbyteri); his title was Bishop of Philadelphia.

Died April 22, 1842 (Friday morning), at Philadelphia. The Requiem Mass was said Tuesday, April 26, 1842, Bp. Kenrick officiating with Rev. Dr. Joseph Sultzbacher as assistant Priest. Canon of St. Joseph's Church, Vienna; Rev. C. J. Carter, Deacon; Rev. Daniel X. Devitt, Sub-Deacon; Rev. —Burke and Rev. —Pancoast, Deacons of Honor.

(1) A letter from the Irish College, Paris, states that while it is possible that he, having finished his studies here, was ordained in Paris. There is no record in the College of his birth date or place of ordination; all the records and lists were destroyed during the great Revolution.

In a pamphlet dated February 11, 1821, entitled "Pastoral Charges delivered by Bp. Conwell, in the St. Mary's Church, Philadelphia," we read: "I was Vic. General for 24 years, to Abp. of Armagh, and studied under the Primate. ****."

A letter from Cardinal Logue, Abp. of Armagh, says: "I can discover but one thing, that he was born at Moneymore (Parish), Co. Derry. Any records that may have been kept have disappeared during the days of Persecution. I have asked the oldest living Catholic in the diocese, and all that he knows, is, that when he was a boy he heard people speak of Dr. Conwell. ****"

It is certain that his death (in 1842) notices, and any other mention of him at that time give his age as about 96 years, which would make the year of birth within a possibility 1746; The Catholic Directory for 1843, however, gives his age as 94 years.

(2) De Courcey-Shea, "New History, etc," edition 1879, p. 217, says: "Consecrated 1830," an error of 10 years.

For Consecration data I am under great obligation to His Eminence Cardl. Vaughen, who sent me certified copy of the original record. The original record was made and signed by "Fr. Tulte, Sec'y," in 1820.

The Rev. James Bramston, who was one of the assistants, was consecrated in 1823, as successor to Bp. Poynter.

The date of Bp. Conwell's appointment is by Brief of November 26, 1819.

Rev. Joseph Balfe, DD., whose brother Henry Balfe was assistant to Father Keenan, of Lancaster Pa., related to the author that Father Keenan had said that Bp. Conwell had passed the anniversary of his ordination on board the vessel which brought both of them to the U. S. As they landed at Baltimore, on November 21, 1820, the ordination must have taken place in that month or at earliest, very late in October.

It is given that he was Parish Priest of Dungannon. Investigation at that place brings reply: "The records here are missing; I can give no data of any kind regarding Dr. Conwell."

He was called to Rome and sailed from New York, Monday, July 11, 1828, having appointed Rev. William Mathews as Administrator of his Diocese.

From the (MSS.) testimony of one of his relatives in the "Conwell Will Suit," I have found that the Bishop became blind in August 1832, and "That he never said Mass after that."

CORCORAN, RT. REV. JAMES ANDREW, D.D.,
(Domestic Prelate, Diocese of Philadelphia.)

Born March 30, 1820, at Charleston, S. C., where he was baptized by Rev. James Wallace, D.D.; ordained December 21, 1842, at Rome, by Cardinal Fransoni. He was sent to the Propaganda College in company with (the later Bp.) P. N. Lynch, by Bp. England, in December, 1833, and was first native born Carolinian ever ordained in the Church; was secretary to the Baltimore councils of 1855 and 1858; and of the Plenary Council of 1866. In 1871 he came to Philadelphia at the solicitation of Bp. Wood, as professor in the Seminary of Charles Borromeo. He was named Rt. Rev. Mgr. and Domestic Prelate in Rome, December 16, 1883 (no investiture at Rome—see Seton.)

Died July 16, 1889, at St. Charles Seminary, Philadelphia.

CORRIGAN, MT. REV. MICHAEL AUGUSTINE, D.D.,
(New York.)

Born August 13, 1839, at Newark, N. J.; ordained September 19, 1863, at Rome, Italy, by Cardinal Patrizzi; consecrated at Newark, May 4, 1873, by Abp. McCloskey, of N. Y., assisted by Bp. William G. McCloskey, of Louisville, Ky., and Bp. John Loughlin, of Brooklyn, being the second Bp. of Newark. On October 1, 1880, he was made Coadjutor to the Abp. of New York, and transferred to the Titular See of "Petra;" succeeded as Abp. of N. Y., October 10, 1885; made assistant at the Pontifical Throne, April 19, 1887.

(Verified by Abp. Corrigan.)

COSGROVE, RT. REV. HENRY, D.D.,
(Davenport.)

Born December 19, 1834, at Williamsport, Pa.; ordained at Dubuque, Iowa, August 27, 1857, by Bp. Smythe, of Dubuque; consecrated in the Cathedral of Davenport, September 14, 1884, by Abp. Feehan, assisted by Bp. Hennessy, of Dubuque, and Bp. O'Connor, of Omaha; was administrator Sede Vacante, of Davenport, from July 4, 1883, till his consecration.

(Furnished by Bp. Cosgrove.)

COTTER, RT. REV. JOSEPH BERNARD, D.D.,
(Winona, Minn.)

Born November 19, 1844, at Liverpool, England; ordained May 23, 1871, at St. Paul, Minn., by Bp. Grace, of St. Paul; consecrated at St. Paul, December 27, 1889, by Abp. Ireland, assisted by Bp. Grace and Bp. Marty.

(Furnished by Bp. Cotter.)

CRETIN, RT. REV. JOSEPH, D.D.,

(St. Paul, Minn.)

Born December 10, 1799 ⁽¹⁾, at Montluel, Dept. l'Ain, in the old Diocese of Bellay, France; ordained December 20, 1823, ⁽²⁾ at Paris, France, by Mgr. Alex. R. Devie, Bp. of Bellay, in the private chapel; consecrated at Bellay, January 26, 1851, by Mgr. Devie, assisted by Coadjutor Bp. Claude Chalendon, and Mgr. Stephen Marilley, Bp. of Lausanne and Geneva.

Died at St. Paul, February 22, 1857.

(1) Birth.—Dr. Shea, Vol. III, "Cath. Ch. in the U. S.," says: He was born at "Lyons," in "1800." The above was copied from the records, and sent to the author by His Grace the Abp. of Lyons, especially for this work.

(2) Ordination.—Copied from the record of the old Diocese of Bellay, by favor of the Abp. of Lyons, on April 14, 1896.

Received Tonsure, 1820; Minor Orders, November 24, 1821; Sub-Deacon, May 22, 1822; Deacon, May 1, 1823; all at S. Sulpice, Paris. He was then sent to the Diocese of Bellay, for elevation to the priesthood, but was afterward returned to Paris, where Bp. Devie ordained him (Letter from Abp. of Lyons). On July 1, 1831, he was nominated "Cure de Ferney" (Letter of Abp. of Lyons, April, 1896).

CROQUET, RT. REV. MGR. ADRIAN JOSEPH,

(Dom. Prel., Oregon.)

Born April 12, 1818, in Braine, L'allend, Belgium; ordained September 21, 1844, in Mechlin, Belgium, by Cardinal Abp. Engelbert Stercks; named Mgr. Dom. Prel., April 18, 1894, invested by Abp. Gross.

(Verified by Mgr. Croquet.)

CURTIS, RT. REV. ALFRED ALLEN,

(Wilmington, Del.)

Born July 4, 1831, in Somerset County (Eastern Shore), Maryland; ordained December 18, 1874, in the Cathedral, Baltimore, by Abp. Bayley, of Baltimore; consecrated in Cathedral of Baltimore, November 16, 1886, by Abp. Gibbons of Baltimore, assisted by Bp. John Moore, of St. Augustine, Fla., and Bp. John J. Kain, of Wheeling, W. Va.; resigned by letter dated January 23, 1896, which was accepted at Rome, by letter dated June 10, 1896. He received the Titular See of "Echinus" on June 25, 1896, and was continued as Bp. Administrator of Wilmington, until the consecration of his successor. Preached his farewell sermon Sunday, May 2, 1897. He was received into the church by Cardl. John Henry Newman, in England, on April 18, 1872.

Mr. Esling in his paper, in "Records of A. C. H. Soc., Vol. I, p. 142, gives the name (erroneously) "Alfred Ambrose."

(Verified by letter to author, dated October 28, 1896, and signed by Bp. Curtis.)

DAVID, RT. REV. JOHN BAPTIST MARY, D.D.,
(Bardstown, Ky.)

Born January 4, 1761 ⁽¹⁾, at Coueron, near Nantes, France ⁽²⁾; ordained September 24, 1785, at the Minor Seminary S.S. (le Solitude) Issy (suburb of Paris), France ⁽³⁾, by Mgr. Anton Leonor, Leo Leclerc, de Inigne, Abp. of Paris; consecrated at Bardstown, Ky., August 15, 1819 (Bull dated July 4, 1817), Bp. of "Mauricastro," i. p. i., and Coadjutor of the Bp. of Bardstown, by Bp. Flaget of Bardstown, assisted by Rev. Charles Neryncks (sac.) and Rev. Thomas Wilson, O.P. (sac); promoted Bp. of Bardstown ⁽⁴⁾ on resignation of Bp. Flaget, but at his own desire he (in 1833) resigned the See into the hands of Dr. Flaget, and taking no Titular See, went into the missions as a priest (see Flaget).

Died at the Nazereth Convent, Ky., July 12, 1841.

(1) This date recently discovered in an old letter written by Bp. David, to a sister, in Nazereth (Ky.) Convent, who died years ago. The date was in the Bishop's writing.

(Letter from Superior, Nazereth Convent.)

(2) Near Nantes, France, a small village about five and a half leagues from Nantes, between that place and Angers, or rather, between Nantes and the village of Primboeuf. There are some of the David family there yet, although they cannot give any account of his birth.

(3) He entered the Seminary at Nantes, where he spent four years, he then was preceptor in a family in the city; made Deacon at Nantes; He then determined to enter the Sulpitian order, arrived in Paris in 1783, spent two years at Issy (solitude), from where he was ordained.

(Letter from "Issy.")

This is probably correct. It is, however, thought by some authorities in France (per letters) that the Bp. of Angers may have ordained him, as he had received Sub-Deaconate and Deaconate from his hands in 1782 and 1783, but at that time he had not yet entered the order of Sulpitians. This, and the fact that the Abp. of Paris ordained for both the SS. houses in Paris, seems to point to the latter as the ordaining Prelate; there are, however, no records at Paris, either at Issy, nor in the Archives in that See.

The "Via de F (ather) Emery, Tom. I, p. 217, gives Issy as the place of ordination.

(4) He had been appointed successor in November, 1832, and his resignation accepted in April, 1833.

It is certain that Dr. David was unprepared for this succession to the See of Bardstown, and he at once gave over the administration into the hands of Bp. Flaget, resigned all episcopal faculties, soliciting Bp. Rosati's aid in having his appeal to Rome heeded. A relief came in acceptance of the resignation, and a new Coadjutor was consecrated to Bp. Flaget, although steps had been taken to have a Coadjutor to Bp. David (see Chabrat).

DE CONCELIO, RT. REV. MGR. JANUARIUS,
(Dom. Prel., Diocese of Newark.)

Born July 6, 1835, at Naples, Italy; ordained May, 1859

(Trinity), at Genoa, Italy, by Abp. Andreas Charvaz, of Genoa; named Mgr. Dom. Prelate, May, 1887.

Died Wednesday, March 23, 1898, at 7:30 o'clock, A. M., at Jersey City, N. J.

(Furnished by Mgr. DeConcelio.)

DEMERS, RT. REV. MODESTE, D.D.,

(Vancouver Is., B. C.)

Born October 11, 1809, at St. Nicholas, Prov. Quebec, Canada; ordained February 7, 1836, at Quebec, by Mgr. Signay, Bp. of that See; consecrated at St. Paul, Oregon, November 30, 1847, by Abp. F. N. Blanchet, assisted by two priests (probably Rev. J. B. Z. Bolduc and Rev. A. Langlois) ⁽¹⁾. He was Bp. Administrator of the unprovided Dioceses of Princess Charlotte and New Caledonia, until they were suppressed.

Died at Victoria, V. Is., July 28, 1871.

(1) Mr. Aug. Rochon and wife, who were present at the consecration, say: "The only Bishop present was Mgr. Blanchet. There were present Fathers Bolduc, A. Langlois, LeClerc and M. Acolti, S. J., and the two former were the most prominent." Mr. Rochon came to the West with Fathers F. N. Blanchet and Demers as their servant, and is yet (1896) living at the old mission at Cowlitz Prairie, Washington. The ordination data is from the Archives of Quebec.

DE PAUW, RT. REV. MGR. EDWARD M.,

(Dom. Prel., Diocese of Ogdensburg.)

Born September 20, 1830, at Hoil, Belgium; ordained September 23, 1854, at Foligno, Prov. of Umbria, Italy, by Mgr. Nicholas Bellette, Bp. of Foligno; named Dom. Prel. June 17, 1897, and Prot. Ap. July 8, 1892; invested in Rome, by Mgr. Pericoli, Dean of the "College of Protonotaries;" Mgr. DePauw resides at Rome, Italy.

DE REGGE, RT. REV. MGR. HYPPOLYTE, D.D.,

(Dom. Prel. Diocese of Rochester.)

Rosati; consecrated at Pittsburg, Pa., December 9, 1860, by Abp. F. P. Kenrick, of Baltimore, assisted by Bp. Whelan, of Wheeling, and Bp. Young, of Erie; was transferred to the new Diocese of Allegheny, Pa., January 11, 1876; installed in his Cathedral on March 19 of the same year. He resigned July 29, 1877, which was accepted by Rome on August 3; he took no Titular See.

Died January 5, 1878, in the "House of Beneficence," at Terragona, Spain.

(Verified by Bp. Ryan, C.M., of Buffalo.)

DONAHUE, RT. REV. PATRICK JOSEPH, D.D.,
(Wheeling, W. Va.)

Born April 15, 1849, at Malvern, Worcestershire, England; ordained December 23, 1885, at St. Mary's Seminary, Baltimore, by Abp. Gibbons; consecrated at the Cathedral, Baltimore, April 8, 1894, by Cardinal Gibbons, assisted by Bp. Foley, of Detroit, and Bp. Haid, of North Carolina.

DONNELLY, RT. REV. ARTHUR JOSEPH, V.G.,

Born July 19, 1820, at Athy, Co. Kildare, Ireland; ordained October 6, 1852, in New York City, by Abp. Hughes; named Dom. Prel.,—, 1889.

Died March 24, 1890, at N. Y. City.

DONOHUE, RT. REV. MGR. PATRICK JOSEPH,
(Dom. Prel. Diocese of Milwaukee.)

DUBOIS, RT. REV. JOHN, D.D.,

(New York.)

Born August 24, 1764, at Paris, France; ordained September 22, 1787, at S. Sulpice, Paris, by Abp. Anton Lenor Leo Le Clerc, de Inigne, of Paris. After his ordination he said his first Mass in the Church of S. Sulpice; a little later he was Chaplain at the "Petit Maison," of the Sisters of Charity, in the Rue de Seve; left Paris for America in May, 1791; consecrated at Baltimore, October 29, 1826, by Abp. Marechal, assisted by Bp. Conwell, of Philadelphia, and V. Rev. John Power, admr. of New York (Sede Vacante).

Died in New York, December 25, 1842.

(Data from Paris, and New York) also.
(Vide Panegyric, delivered by Rev. Wm. Quarter, 1842.)

DUBOURG, RT. REV. LOUIS WILLIAM VALENTINE, D.D., S.S., (New Orleans.)

Born February 14, 1766, at Cape Francois, San Domingo, W. I. ('); ordained——, 1788 ('), at the Seminary of S. Sulpice, Paris, France, by Mgr. Anton Leonor, Leo, Le Clerc, de Inigne Abp. of Paris; consecrated at Rome, Italy, in the Church of St. Louis of the French, September 24, 1815, by Card'l Joseph Doria Pamfili, Bp. of Porto, assisted by Mgr. Gabriel Courtois de Presigney, Bp. of St. Malo, French Ambassador, and Mgr. Francis X. Perriera, Bp. of Terracina; the sermon was preached by Rev. N. B. Anduze; was appointed by Rome, September 15, 1815; resigned the See of N. Orleans, November, 1826 ('); translated to the Bishopric of Montauban, France, on the nomination of the King (Ordonnance Royal), on August 13, 1826 ('); decreed at Rome, on October 2, 1826 (Gams); promoted Abp. of Besancon, France, February 15, 1833; took possession of his See, October 10, 1833 (').

Died December 12, 1833, at Besancon (').

(1) "The family came originally from Bordeaux."

(Letter of Bp. of Montauban, 1896.)

(2) This is from the Bp. of Montauban, and contradicts the usual year given, 1791. He came to America in 1794; and became a Sulpitian in 1795 (Clarke, in "Deceased Bishops"); and Father Widman, S.J., of Louisiana, thinks this is correct, but adds, "but as he (Dubourg) had not spoken of ordination before, this might be misunderstood" (see Annales, 1834, p. 99.).

In evidence of the belief in the "1791" date, Father Widman says: "He was then but 25 years of age. It does not appear probable that he should not have been ordained at the eve of the Revolution, since many were ordained with dispensation of age, witness, Cheverus, yet the fact was, that he was but 22 years of age, and the dispensation was given, if the date given me by the Bp. of Montauban be correct. (F. X. R.)

There is no record of the date and month at Paris, or Montauban.

(3) Annales 1828, p. 332; also from Roman Record.

(4) What could have determined a man of such energy of character, to abandon—after so many labors—a diocese he loved so much, there must have been grievous reason, since the Holy See accepted his resignation at once. The inducements held out by the Minister of Worship account for it, but an account in a French publication (Almanach de France), 1835, p. 512, gives a key to the enigma, viz.: "an intriguing individual, by the name of Inglesi, whom he had ordained, and who since has had a miserable end, had abused his confidence, sent to Europe to collect alms for the Diocese, made away with them."

The discrepancy in dates of resignation of New Orleans, and that of translation to Montauban is accounted for by the fact that the French Minister of Worship had sent the "Royal Ordonnance" to Rome for approval in August, where it was decreed in October; the resignation was accepted at once in November. This proves that some notice had been given of an intention to resign the See of New Orleans.

(5) From the Records of the diocese of Montauban, by kindness of the Bishop of that See.

(6) From Records furnished by the Abp. of Besancon, 1895.

"Dr. Dubourg is often represented as the founder of the "Propagation." This is not exactly true (Annales 1836, p. 101), and the Annales are generally correct." Rev. C. W., S.J.

He returned to America after consecration, July 1, 1817; arrived at Annapolis, Md., September 4, 1817.

DUBUIS, RT. REV. CLAUDE MARY, C.S.C., D.D.,

(Galveston, Texas.)

Born March 10, 1817, at Coutouvre, Loire, France; ordained June 1, 1844, in the Seminary Chapel at Lyons, France, by Cardinal de Bonald, Abp. of Lyons; consecrated at the Grand Seminary, Lyons, November 23, 1862, by Bp. Odin, of New Orleans, U. S. A.; assisted by Dr. Charbonnel (ex Bishop), of Toronto, Canada, and Bp. Jean Paul, Lyonnet, of Vallence, France. He resigned July 12, 1881, but kept the title of "Bp. of Galveston," retiring to France, after years of hardships in Texas. In 1894, he received the Titular See of "Arcae," and was promoted Abp. He had lived since retirement at Vernaison, in the Diocese of Lyons, and assisted the Abp. of that See in Episcopal work until his death, which took place at the Hospice for the Infirm, at Vernaison, being ill from La Grippe, on Wednesday May 22, 1895. Bp. Dubuis was one of our greatest and most indefatigable missionary Bishops. He had an iron constitution, and overcame great sufferings and deprivations in the Texan missions.

(Letters of the Abp. of Lyons, who collected the data from Dr. Dubuis, before his death, for this work.)

DUFAL, RT. REV. PETER, C. S. C., D.D.,

(Coadjutor to Bp. Dubuis, of Galveston, Texas.)

Born November 8, 1822 (Friday), at Lamure, Puy de Dome, Diocese of Clairemont, France; ordained September 8, 1852, in the Diocese of Blais, by Bp. Paul Dupasais, of Blais, France; consecrated in the Chapel of the C.S.C., at Le Mans, France, November 25, 1860 (being elected July 3 of that year), by Mgr. Joseph Hypolite Guibert (later Abp. of Paris), assisted by Mgr. Jean Jacques Nanquette, of Le Mans, and Mgr. Celestin de la Hailandiere (retired Bp.), of Vincennes, U. S. A.; Bp. Dufal was then Vicar Ap. of Eastern Bengal, with the title "Bp. of Delcon," i. p. i. He was translated to the Coadjutorship of Galveston, with the right of succession, on May 14, 1878, retaining his Titular See. On account of illness he resigned April 18 (?), 1880, retired to France in the Convent of the C. S. C., at Nully sur Seine, Paris; retained his Titular See, but refused transfer or promotion. He still lives there (1896). Bp. Dufal, in a letter giving above data, says: "I was translated to U. S., by brief dated August, 1878." The former date May 14, comes from New Orleans; both are right. The brief was only received in August.

(The above data is from Bp. Dufal, by kindness of Fr. Corby, C. S. C., for this work. F. X. R.)

DUGAST, RT. REV. LOUIS MARCEL,

(Domestic Prelate, Diocese Albany.)

Born May 20, 1845, at St. Jacques, Prov. Quebec, Canada; ordained November 22, 1868, at Montreal, Canada, by Mgr. Ignace Bourget, of Montreal; named Dom. Prel. and Protonotary Apostolic, October 4, 1893; invested in the Purple, by Bp. McNierny, November 22, 1893, at Albany.

(Verified by Mgr. Dugast.)

DUGGAN, RT. REV. JAMES, D.D.,

(Chicago, Ill.)

Born May 22, 1825, at Maynooth, Co. Kildare, Ireland; ordained May 29, 1847, in the Cathedral at St. Louis, Mo., by Bp. P. R. Kenrick; consecrated at St. Louis, May 3, 1857 ('), Bp. of "Gabala," i. p. i.; and Coadjutor to the Abp. of St. Louis, by Abp. P. R. Kenrick, assisted by Bp. Henni and Bp. O'Regan. In March, 1858, he was sent as Administrator (Sede Vacante) to Chicago; and on January 21, 1859, was, by brief from Rome, transferred to Chicago as Bishop of that See. On April 14, 1869, was removed by reason of mental disability; he still lives (1897) at the asylum of the Sisters of Charity, at St. Louis.

(1) Dr. Shea, "Church in the U. S.," Vol. IV, p. 620, gives his title as Bp. of Antigone, also in "The Catholic Church in Chicago," p. 198, the same title is given. This error has been widely copied in all our histories, in spite of the fact that Gams' "Index Episcoporum," gives the title as "Gabala." His Grace, Abp. Ryan of Philadelphia, in a letter to the author says: "* I remember very distinctly that his title was 'Bp. of Gabala,' but as a Coadjutor receives two documents, one may have had error. I remember him saying that he considered himself free to adopt either title, but he preferred Antigone ****."

The error arose out of the fact that Coadjutor Wood, of Philadelphia, had been consecrated "Bp. of Antigone," a month before.

DUNNE, RT. REV. EDWARD JOSEPH, D.D.,
(Dallas, Texas.)

Born in Ireland, April 23, 1848; ordained June 29, 1871, at St. Mary's Seminary, Baltimore, by Bp. Becker; consecrated in All Saints' Church, at Chicago, Ill., November 30, 1893, by Abp. Feehan, assisted by Bp. Ryan, of Alton, and Bp. Foley, of Detroit.

(Verified by Bp. Dunne.)

DUPERON, RT. REV. ABBOT THOMAS, O. S. B.,

Born at Siboure, Basses Pyrenees, France, October 29, 1842; ordained May 22, 1869, at Bayonne (Cathedral), by Mgr. Francis Laery; made solemn profession in the Abbey Church of "Pierre qui Vire," July 29, 1877; came to the United States as Prior of "Sacred Heart Abbey" (Indian Territory), December 21, 1884; elected Abbot, August 12, 1896; election approved by the Abbot General, September 14, 1896; blessed Abbot at this Abbey, by Vic. Ap. Theophile Meerschaert, D.D., November 11, 1896. Died January 7, 1898, at Paris, France.

(Data verified by Abbot Duperon, Sacred Heart Abbey, Oklahoma.)

DURIER, RT. REV. ANTHONY, D.D.,
(Natchitoches, La.)

Born August 8, 1832, at St. Bonnet Desquarts, Loire, France; ordained October 28, 1856, at Cincinnati, O., by Abp. Purcell; consecrated in the Cathedral at New Orleans, La., March 19, 1885, by Abp. Leroy, assisted by Bp. Nerez, and Bp. Gallagher.

(Verified by Bp. Durier.)

DWENGER, RT. REV. JOSEPH, D.D., C.P.P.S.,
(Ft. Wayne, Ind.)

Born June 1, 1837, near Minster, Auglaize Co., Ohio; ordained at the age of 22, by dispensation, on September 4, 1859, at Cincinnati, O., by Abp. Purcell; consecrated in Cincinnati, April 14, 1872, by Abp. Purcell; assisted by Bp. Toebe, and Bp. Borgess.

Died January 29, 1893, at Ft. Wayne.

(From Diocesan Records.)

ECCLESTON, MT. REV. SAMUEL, D.D., S.S.,
(Baltimore.)

Born June 27, 1801, a few miles from Chestertown ('), Kent Co., Md.; ordained April 24, 1825, at Baltimore, by Abp. Marechal; consecrated at Baltimore, September 14, 1834, by Abp. Whitfield; assisted by Bp. Fenwick, of Boston, and Bp. F. P. Kenrick, Coadjutor of Philadelphia, his title being Bp. of "Thermias," i. p. i., and Coadjutor to the Abp. of Baltimore. He succeeded to that See, October 19, 1834, and until 1841, was administrator of Richmond.

Died at Visitation Convent, Georgetown, D. C., April 22, 1851.

(From Balt. Records.)

(1) "Catholic Expositor" for February, 1843.

ELDER, MT. REV. WILLIAM HENRY, D.D.,
(Cincinnati, O.)

Born March 22, 1819, at Baltimore, Md.; ordained March 29, 1846, at the "Urban" College, Rome, Italy, by Mgr. Ioannes Brunelli, D.D.; consecrated Bp. of Natchez, Miss., on May 3, 1857, at Baltimore, by Abp. F. P. Kenrick; assisted by Bp. McGill, and Coadjutor Bp. Wood; transferred to Cincinnati, January 30, 1880; made Coadjutor, with the title "Bp. of Avara," i. p. i.; succeeded as Abp. of Cincinnati, July 4, 1883.

(From Abp. Elder.)

EGAN, RT. REV. MICHAEL, O.S.F., D.D. ('), (Philadelphia.) (')

Born on — 1761 (?) ('), at — Galway (?), Ireland; (') ordained [no data]; consecrated at Baltimore, Md. (St. Peters Pro Cathedral), on October 28, 1810, by Abp. Carroll, assisted by Bp. (elect) Flaget, and Bp. (elect) Cheverus.

Died July 22, 1814, at St. Joseph's Church, Philadelphia.

(1) Dr. Shea gives the name as Patrick, and in another place as John; Abp. Wood, in his announcement for the Reguem, on the occasion of the removal of the body to the vaults under the Cathedral of Philadelphia, March, 1869, gives the name as Cornelius.

(Griffin's "Life of Bp. Egan.")

(2) There is no record of his birth. A letter from the Franciscans at Rome, says: "There is a possibility that he was born on St. Michael's Day (Sept. 29), as it was not unusual to take the name of the Saint in the Calendar, of the day of birth, when entering the Order; the Record of his birth, even if existing, would not be made in the name of Michael, as a baptismal name."

"There is no record of his birth."

(Letters of O. S. F., From Rome, Dublin, Ennis, Athlone, Paris, etc.)

(3) A letter from the Franciscans at Athlone, Ireland, contains a doubt of his being born in the Galway district. "I am inclined to doubt that the name came from Galway. It is more of a King's Co. name. I came across an old grave stone in the old churchyard of Lamonaghan, giving the name "Rev. Michael Egan, O. S. F." who died Parish Priest of the place, about 1728. The family name Egan still exists in the neighborhood * * * * *"

(Rev. "J. B. M.," O. S. F., Sept. 10, 1896.)

Same, dated, Oct. 9, 1896 " * * * I have five different seekers at work on Dr. Egan with no results."

There are no Records of Bp. Egan in the archives here. I will advertise for data in the Irish papers, etc.

(Letter of Bishop of Limerick to Author.)

(4) Letter to Author, dated "St. Isidores Convent, Rome, May 17, 1895, Father Michael Egan, was our guardian here from May 1787, for about three years, the usual term. He was also made Lector of Theology in June, 1787. There is probability that he had arrived here very shortly before, since no mention of him is made in our miserable remnant of Records. Later, on Sept. 3, 1793, it is recorded that he left for the Mission of Ireland. It is possible that he made his studies at Louvain, or Prague, and came here after ordination. No novices were received in Ireland from 1750, for some years, and I think none were ordained there during those years; try the Provincial at Dublin, also Fr. Luke Carey, at the Convent, Florence, Italy, he has made extensive search * * * * *"

(Fr. Bernard, O. S. F., President.)

Search at Dublin: Result, no record. Search at Florence: "Never could be found, etc."

(F. X. R.)

Dr. Egan sailed from Dublin for America.

It is more than likely that he was ordained in Belgium. No records, however, at Louvain, or Liege. One Franciscan Priest, at Rome, thinks it possible that he came to Rome (May, 1787) direct from his ordination, which might have been about the Christmas preceding, which would make his birth happen about 26 years previous, or 1761.

ENGEL, RT. REV. PETER, D.D., O. S. B., ABBOT;

Born February 2, 1856, at St. Nicholas, Ozaukee Co., Wisconsin; ordained December 15, 1878, at St. Cloud, Minn., by Bp. Seidenbush; professed at "St. John's Abbey," Stearns Co., Minn., July 19, 1875; blessed Abbot by Bp. Marty, at "St. John's Abbey," (of which he had been elected Abbot) on July 11, 1895.

(Data from the Abbey.)

ENGLAND, RT. REV. JOHN, D.D.,

(Charleston, S. C.)

Born September 23, 1786, at Cork, Ireland; ordained October 11, 1808, at Cork, by Bp. Francis Moylan of that See; consecrated at Cork, September 21, 1820, by Bp. John Murray, of Cork, assisted by Bp. Kieran Moran, of Ossary, and Bp. Patrick Kelly, of Richmond, Va., U. S. A.; appointed Visitor Apostolic to Hayti, March 15, 1833. Died April 11, 1842, at Charleston, S. C. The obsequies were held on Thursday morning, April 28, Bp. Hughes being Celebrant; Bp. Kenrick, of Philadelphia, preached. The absolution was given by Bp. Kenrick. Rev. Joseph Sultzbacher, canon of St. Stephen's, Vienna, Austria, V. Rev. P. E. Moriority, O. S. A., and Rev. T. J. Donaghue, were present.

(Catholic Miscellany, of Date.)

EPHRAEM, RT. REV. ABBOT McDONNELL,

(Trappist.)

Born February 12, 1822, at Westport, Co. Mayo, Ireland; ordained December 20, 1851, at Waterford, Ireland, by Bp. Nicholas Foran; entered the order at "Mt. Melleray," Ireland, September 4, 1845; professed November 1, 1846; received the four minor orders from Abbot, Bruno, November 13, 1851; received the Habit, October 2, 1845; was sent, Titular prior, to "New Melleray," Iowa; blessed Abbot in Cathedral of Dubuque, by Bp. Clement Smythe, of Dubuque, Iowa, on May 3, 1863. He was baptized "Charles Mathias Ephraem," son of Mathias McDonnell and his wife Anna Lynch. Resigned September 8, 1883, and retired to Abbey, Mt. Melleray, Ireland.

(From the Abbot Ephraem.)

Search has been made for the Earlier Trappist Abbots, but neither Ireland, France, nor the United States have any record.

FARLEY, RT. REV. JOHN M., D.D.,

(Aux. Bp. of New York.)

Born April 20, 1842, at Newtown Hamilton, Armagh Co., Ireland; ordained June 11, 1870, at St. John's Lateran, Rome, by Cardinal Patrizzi, V. G. of Rome; made Private Chamberlain to Leo XIII, January 20, 1884; named Domestic Prelate (Rt. Rev. Mgr.) April 8, 1892; made Protonotary Ap. by Pope Leo XIII, August 1895; appointed Titular Bp. of "Zeugma," and Auxiliary Bp. to the Abp. of N. Y., October 9, 1895; consecrated in the Cathedral of New York, December 21, 1895, by Abp. Corrigan, assisted by Bp. McDonnell, of Brooklyn, and Bp. Gabriel.

(Verified by Bp. Farley.)

FEEHAN, MT. REV. PATRICK AUGUSTINE, D.D.,
(Chicago, Ill.)

Born August 29, 1829, at Spring Hill, Co. Tipperary, Ireland; ordained November 1, 1852, at St. Louis, Mo., by Abp. P. R. Kenrick; consecrated at St. Louis, November 1, 1865, as Bishop of Nashville, Tenn., by Abp. P. R. Kenrick, assisted by Bp. Miede, and Bp. Juncker; Bp. Duggan preached. On September 10, 1880, he was transferred to Chicago, as Archbishop of that See. He reached that city on November 25, 1880.

(Verified from Diocesan Record.)

FENWICK, RT. REV. BENEDICT JOSEPH, S.J., D.D.,
(Boston, Mass.)

Born September 3, 1782, at Leonardtown, St. Mary's Co., Md.; ordained March 12, 1808, at Georgetown, D. C., by Abp. Neale; consecrated at Baltimore, November 1, 1825, by Abp. Marechal, assisted by Bp. England and Bp. Conwell.

Died August 11, 1846, at Boston. (Verified at Boston.)

Entered the S. J. October 10, 1836; was Administrator Sede Vacante of N. Y., 1815-1816.

FENWICK, RT. REV. EDWARD DOMINIC, D.D., O.P.,
(Cincinnati, O.)

Born August 19, 1768, in St. Mary's Co., Md.; ordained June, 1793 ⁽¹⁾, at Ghent, Belgium, by Ferdinand Maria Lobkowitz, Bp. of Ghent; consecrated at St. Rose's Chapel, Washington Co., Ky., January 13, 1822, by Bp. Flaget; assisted by Rev. Thomas Wilson, O. P. (Sac.), and Rev. Augustine Hill, O. P. (Sac.)

Died at Wooster, O., September 25, 1832.

(1) Ordained Deacon, March, 1793. The date of receiving the Priesthood is from the Chronicles of the English Province of the O. P.; verified by the Belgian Province of the same Order, and also by the Dominicans in the United States. The Bp. of Ghent writes me (Dec. 17, 1895): "He (Fenwick) received his dimisoriales" of the Bp. of Ghent, Feb. 13, 1793." This of course means some document authorizing any Bishop to ordain him. There are no other records at Ghent, nor at Antwerp. Appleton's Cyclopaedia gives Ghent as the place of ordination.

The Bishop of Mechlin writes: "No records here."

Bp. Fenwick entered the College at Bornheim, Belgium, Dec. 24, 1784, and received the Habit there, on Sept. 4, 1788.

FINK, RT. REV. LOUIS MARY, D.D., O.S.B.,
(Leavenworth, Kas.)

Born July 12, 1834, at Triftersberg, Parish Rodwig, Diocese of Ratisbon, Bavaria; entered O. S. B., September, 1852; solemn vows at St. Vincent's Abbey, Pa., January 6, 1854; ordained May 28, 1857, at St. Vincents Abbey, Pa., by Bp. Young, of Erie, Pa.; consecrated at Chicago, Ill., June 11, 1871, by Bp. Foley, of Chicago, assisted by Bp. Miede, and Bp. Melcher, being Titular of "Eucarpia," and Vicar Apostolic of Kansas. On May 22, 1877, he was made Bp. of Leavenworth, Kas., and on May 29, 1891, he was transferred as Bp. of Kansas City, Kan.

(Data supplied by Bp. Fink.)

The Sede has been restored to Leavenworth since the above was prepared.—(Author.)

FINTAN, RT. REV. ABBOT (Mundweiler), O. S. B.,
(“St. Meinrad’s Abbey,” Indiana.)

Born July 12, 1835, at Tigurinus, ex-Dietikon, Canton Zurich, Switzerland; professed October 14, 1855, at “Einsiedeln” Monastery (Switzerland); ordained September 11, 1859, at “Einsiedeln,” by Bp. Carl Arnold, of Bale, (Switzerland); elected Abbot February 3, 1880; blessed by Bp. Marty at the Abbey (St. Meinrad’s, Ind.) Died at the Abbey, February 14, 1898.

(Supplied by the Abbot.)

FITZGERALD, RT. REV. EDWARD, D.D.,
(Little Rock, Ark.)

Born October 28, 1833, in Limerick, Ireland; ordained August 22, 1857, at Cincinnati, O., by Abp. Purcell; consecrated at Columbus, O., Feb. 3, 1867, having been elected at Rome, April 24, 1866, and announced to the consistory, June 22, 1866, Abp. Purcell being consecrator, assisted by Bp. Rosencrans, and Bp. Lynch, of Toronto, Canada. The Bulls were dated August 20, 1866. He was administrator (Sede Vacante), of the Diocese of Dallas, Texas, from December 1892, until September, 1893.

(Data Supplied by Bp. Fitzgerald.)

FITZMAURICE, RT. REV. JOHN E., D.D.,

Born at Newtown Sanders, Co. Kerry, Ireland, February —, 1839; ordained December 21, 1862, in the Cathedral Chapel, Philadelphia, Pa., by Rt. Rev. James F. Wood, D.D., of Philadelphia; made assistant Priest at St. John’s Church until 1865; from there he was sent as assistant to St. Paul’s Church, where he remained for a few months; when, in the same year (1865), he was sent to organize the new parish St. Agatha’s. In 1886, he was appointed Rector of the Seminary of St. Charles Borromeo, in the Diocese of Philadelphia; appointed Titular Bishop of "Amisus," and Coadjutor to the Bishop of Erie, Pa.; consecrated February 24, 1898 (Feast of St. Mathias), in the Cathedral at Philadelphia, Pa., by Most Rev. P. J. Ryan, D.D., Archbishop of Philadelphia, assisted by Rt. Rev. Edmund F. Prendergast, auxiliary Bishop of Philadelphia, and Rt. Rev. Ign. F. Horstmann, of Cleveland, O.; sermon by Coadjutor Bishop Hoban, of Scranton, Pa.; said his first Pontifical Mass on Sunday, February 27, at St. Agatha's Church, Philadelphia.

FITZPATRICK, RT. REV. JOHN BERNARD, D.D.,
(Boston, Mass.)

Born November 1, 1812, at Boston, Mass.; ordained June 13, 1840, at Paris, France, by Abp. Dionysius d'Affre, of Paris; consecrated at Georgetown, D. C., March 24, 1844, by Bp. Fenwick, of Boston, assisted by Bp. Whelan, of Va., and Bp. Tyler. His title was Bp. of "Galipolis," i. p. i., and Coadjutor to the Bp. of Boston. On August 11, 1846, he succeeded to the See of Boston.

Died in Boston, on February 13, 1866.

In June, 1854, he was made "Domestic Prelate, assistant at the Pontifical Throne," by the Pope, during a visit to Rome; was administrator (Sede Vacante) of Hartford, June, 1849, till November, 1850. Appleton's Cyclopaedia, says: "He was ordained at Boston, in 1840, having returned from France, in 1839." This is an error. Father Neagle, Secretary to Abp. Williams, says: "The ordination took place in Paris, in 1840, as given above."

FLAGET, RT. REV. BENEDICT JOSEPH, (S.S.), D.D.,
(Bardstown, Ky.)

Born November 7, 1763, at the village of Coutournat (near Billon), Province of Auvergne, Diocese of Clermont, France; (1) ordained in 1788 at Issy (solitude) Seminary of the S.S. for Novices, probably by Bp. de Bonald (Paris letter to author); appointed (bull dated) April 8, 1808; consecrated at Fells Point, Md., on November 4, 1810, by Abp. Carroll, assisted by Bp. Cheverus, of Boston, and Bp. Egan, of Philadelphia; sermon by Bp. Cheverus. Resigned 1832 (see David), reinstated by reason of resignation of Bp. David in 1833; transferred to Louisville, Ky., (which was made the See early in 1841) January 1, 1842.

Died February 11, 1849, at Louisville, Ky.

(1) "We have no records of ordinations from 1780 to 1790, the books lost. There are no other records to be found here, nor in the Paris archives."

(Letter to author from Issy, signed for Supt. "de Forelli," S.S.)

He was confirmed at Clermont by Bp. de Bonald, 1782. Mgr. de Bonald ordained him Sub-Deacon; he entered Clermont Seminary, Nov.

17, 1783, for two years; came to Issy in 1785 after receiving Tonsure and Minor Orders and remained for three years, and was ordained.

(Records of Issy.)

FLASCH, RT. REV. KILLIAN CASPAR, D.D.,

(La Crosse, Wis.)

Born July 16, 1831, at Retzstadt, Bavaria; ordained September 16, 1859, at La Crosse, by Bp. Henni, of Milwaukee; consecrated at St. Francis Seminary, near Milwaukee, August 24, 1881, by Abp. Heiss, assisted by Bp. Krautbauer, and Bp. Seidenbush.

Died August 3, 1891, at La Crosse.

FOLEY, RT. REV. JOHN SAMUEL, D.D.,

(Detroit, Mich.)

Born November 5, 1833, at Baltimore, Md.; ordained December 20, 1856, at Rome, Italy, by Cardinal Patrizzi; consecrated at Baltimore by Cardinal Gibbons, assisted by Bp. Loughlin, and Bp. Wadhams, on November 4, 1888.

(Data supplied by Bp. Foley.)

FOLEY, RT. REV. THOMAS, D.D.,

(Chicago, Ill.)

Born March 6, 1822, at Baltimore, Md.; ordained August 17, 1846, at Baltimore, by Abp. Eccleston; consecrated at Baltimore, February 27, 1870, by Bp. McCloskey, of Louisville, assisted by Bp. Rosencrans, and Bp. Becker, being Coadjutor to Bp. Duggan, and Titular Bp. of "Pergamos." On account of illness of Bp. Duggan, he was made Administrator of the Diocese.

Died at Chicago, Feb. 19, 1879.

(From "Cath. Church in Chicago.")

FOREST, RT. REV. JOHN ANTHONY, D.D.,

(San Antonio, Texas.)

Born December 25, 1838, at St. Martin, St. Germain, France; ordained May 3, 1863, at New Orleans, La., by Bp. C. M. Dubuis, of Galveston; consecrated at San Antonio, October 28, 1895, by Abp. Janssens, of N. O., assisted by Bp. Fitzgerald, and Bp. Gallagher.

GARCIADIEGO, Y MORENO, FRANCIS, O.S.F., D.D. (¹),
 (Bp. of the Californias.)

Born September 17, 1785 (²), in the city of Lagos, State of Jalisco, in Mexico. That being the feast of the Stigmata of St. Francis, he was baptized by the name of Francis. The parents were Senor Don Francisco Garciadiego, and Senora Doña Mariana Moreno, an aunt to the "Heroe of Y'ndependencia," and sister to Don Salvador (advocado), Don Mariano (Medico Doc), and Don Jose Maria (Cura). In the year 1797 he began his studies in the Seminary "Tridentino," of Guadalajara, where he remained until 1800, under the celebrated R. P. Don Jose de Jesus Huerta. In 1803, he entered (as a novice) the "Apostolic College of Guadalupe" in Zacatecas, and in 1804 was professed; studied Theology three years previously, and in 1804 passed an examination with the highest honors. Was ordained priest, November 13, 1808, by the Bp. of Linares, Don Primo Feliciano Marin de Porras, who resided at Monterey. The ordination took place in the chapel at Saltillo, Diocese of Linares. He was then named professor of Theology and Philosophy, and later was sent in the missions of Jalisco and Zacatecas, and was with Rev. Fra. Mariano Velasco, when he was put in charge of the new college (apostolic) of Zapopan, near the city of Guadalajara.

For his eminent virtues and pious disposition, he was made master of novices, Lector in Philosophy, "Vicario Discreto," and commissary of the missions. In 1830, as commissary to the Indian Missions in Alta California, he, accompanied by ten religious, made a visit and named the mission of Santa Barbara as a permanent headquarters of the Indian missions in California. He remained in California until 1834, when he returned to Zacatecas, with the object of endeavoring to secure a Bishopric for the Californias. He solicited the aid of the Mexican Director of Ecclesiastical affairs, representing that it was indispensable for the good of the souls of these Neophytes (savages). By means of the coöperation of one of the most distinguished heads of the government, on September 19, 1836, it was so appointed. On June 22, 1839, the Chapter of the Arch Diocese presented names for the Bishopric, in the following order: R. P. Guzman, Miss. Y. Ap. College, Guadalupe; R. P. Garciadiego, Miss. Ap. Coll. Guadalupe; and R. P. Soriano, Religioso Mercedario. The president of Mexico, General Bustamante, particularly recommended Fra. Garciadiego, and he was preconized at Rome, April 27, 1840, Bishop of the two Californias, and the new diocese was placed under the invocation of St. Francis of Assisi, and suffragan to the Arch Diocese of Mexico. In August, 1840, Dr. Garciadiego went to Zacatecas and was there consecrated on October 4, 1840, in the chapel of the Franciscan College of "Our Lady of Guadalupe" (Ap. Coll). The Abp. of Mexico, Don Manuel Y'Garduña, not having received his pallium, commissioned the Rt. Rev. Abbot Campos to consecrate him. The assistants were Sr. Dn. Fr. Jose Maria de Jesus Belaunzaran, Bp. of Linares, and Sr. Dr. Don Joachin Madrid, Bp. of Tenagre (i part. infid). There were present Sr. Don Angelo Mariano Morales, Bp. of Oaxaca, and Sr. Don Irizarria, Abp. Elect of Cesarea (i, part. infid). After arranging his business, which took him until November 16, 1841, he sailed in an English brigantine provided by Sn. Don. Eustaquen Barron, bound from San Blas, for the port of San Diego, where he arrived on December 11, 1841, accompanied by two religious of the College of Guadalupe. On December 12, 1841, the feast of the apparition of our Lady of Guadalupe, he celebrated his first mass at San Diego. In January, 1842, he went from San Diego to Santa Barbara where he made his definite residence, and in March, 1843, began his episcopal visit over the Californias, which lasted over five months; he returned to Santa Barbara, before undertaking a visit to "Baja California;" here he fell ill and lay for many months, and died on the night of April 30, 1846, at the Franciscan Mission of Santa Barbara, and here he was buried. He appointed as Administrator "Sede Vacante," R. P. Fr. Jose Maria Jesus Gonzales, the Chancellor of the Diocese.

(1) The name is always spelled "Garcia Diego," which is not correct, and the same archiepiscopal authority who furnishes this sketch is the authority on the spelling.

(2) From the Baptismal Record: The sketch of the life of Bp. Garciadiego was compiled by the family and sent me from the See of Guadalajara, over the signature of the Mt. Rev. Archbishop, also verified by the authorities at Zacatecas. It was published six months later, by permission, in Spanish, in "El Tiempo," Mexico City, September 27, 1896.

The MSS. sheets of the first pastoral letter, issued by Bp. Garciadiego, also the MS. official announcement of his death, in the autograph of Dr. Gonzales, Administrator Sede Vacante and signed by all the Fathers at the various missions in California, are both in the Francis X. Reuss Collection of MSS. now in the Library of the American Catholic Historical Society, Philadelphia.

JÜNGER, RT. REV. AEGIDEUS,

(of Nesqually.)

Born April 6, 1833, at Burtscheid bei Aix le Chapelle, Germany, of Johann and Josephine (Horst) Jünger. The Father was born in 1804, at Wilre, Holland. The mother was born in 1808, at Burtscheid. Up to the ninth year the Bishop attended the elementary school at his birth place, his teacher being John William H. Kosten. In 1842, he made his first communion, after which he went to Kaiser-Karl-Gymnasium, at Aachen. About this time the father died, and he was called away from school to carry on his father's business, to support the mother and seven small children. The business was the hauling of coal from the mines, which were about two-hours-distant from Burtscheid. This he did for about seven years. In 1845, he was confirmed by Bp. Baudri, of Köln; in 1858, he was sent to Louvain, in the American College; in 1861, he received Minor Orders; 1862, at Easter, Sub-Deacon; and at Pentacost was made Deacon; and was ordained (Priest), June 27, 1862, at Mechlin, Belgium, by Card'l Engelbert Stercks; celebrated his first Mass at his birth-place, under his old pastor, "Pastor Satorius;" he had had six-weeks vacation to his home, and went on an eight-day foot (zu fusz) pilgrimage to the Shrine "Maria-Kevelær." On September 12, 1862, he left Antwerp, on the steamer "Westerland," for America; was for two years at Walla Walla, as Missionary. Bp. A. M. A. Blanchet called him to Vancouver, as Secretary. He was consecrated at Vancouver, Washington, on October 28, 1879 (Feast S.S. Simon and Jude), by Abp. F. N. Blanchet, assisted by Bp. A. M. A. Blanchet, V. Rev. J. F. Fierens, V. G. In 1884, he visited his birth-place; his mother had died in the mean time (of Cholera), October 2, 1866; he remained for eight months; visited Paris, Vienna, Brussels, Antwerp, Lüttich, Louvain, Mechlin, Rome, Mailand, Venice, Cöln, Dusseldorf, Bonn, Crefeld, Coblenz, Munich, Stuttgart, and other smaller places; studied systems in Seminaries, etc. Dr. Jünger spoke, besides the German language, English, Hollandish, Spanish, French and Greek. During his stay abroad he resided, when at his birth-place, in the old homestead of his father. He was received at the Railroad Depot by over 5000 people who had known him, and many had been school boys with him, but the lapse of twenty-three years had made many changes. In the evening there was a grand "Serenade" given him by the Singing Societies, several coming from a distance, a torch light procession and illumination. The Burgemeister offered him the hospitalities of his mansion during his stay, but he declined in favor of his old homestead. He prepared the children for first communion, confirmed at "Morisnet," Belgium. In Bleyerhaide, Holland, he ordained several students. On August 18, 1885, he again left Antwerp, in the same steamer "Westerland," in return to America; and on December 26, 1895, he died at Vancouver; was buried in the Cathedral Vault, on December 31.

Died June 18, 1817, at Visitation Convent, Georgetown, D. C.

(1) In search after the unknown date and place of his ordination, I quote from data received, viz.: a letter from the Jesuit College at Ghent, Belgium (St. Barbe), says: "There is no record of ordination; some data which we have sought for you at Brussels, mentions that Dr. Neale was at Liege, about September 9, 1773, at the time of the suppression of the S. J. taken from Records of the English Prov. S. J. Foley, Vol. V. 1879, pp. 187 and 188." These notes conclude as follows: "P. Leonardus Neale, Prefectus in Missiones Anglo-Marylandisus, December 15, 1773," and then in French "J'en conclus que le P. Neale, etait prêtre de puis 1773 on an plus tot de puis 1772 mais cela est insuffisant comme ren seiment." These notes enclosed from Liege, are dated, Brussels, Nov. 14, 1895. (F. X. R.)

A further search led me to Stonyhurst College, Blackburn, England, with better result, a letter from Father Walmsley, S. J., Rector, gives facts. " I have been searching our best living authorities, Father John Girard, S. J. From the Liege Day Book: It is clear that Neale was ordained at Liege, June 5, 1773.

"Entry as follows: From Liege Day Book: "Saturday, June 5, 1773, Presbyteratus ordinem suscepit R. Dom. Leonardus Neale (name of ordaining prelate omitted), Friday, December 16, 1773, Discessit d. Leo. Neale, Bidellus, Jamaica (sic) petiturus. * Cum Bidello abiire in Angliano D.D. Car, Sewall, Aug. Jenkins."

(2) The name of the ordaining prelate is a conjecture, as the Bishop of Liege generally ordained the students.

(Letter from Ghent.)

Entered the S. J., at Ghent, Belgium, September 7th, 1767. He received the Pallium at the hands of Bp. Cheverus at Georgetown, D. C., in the Visitation Chapel, November 19, 1816.

NECKERE, RT. REV. LEO. RAYMOND, D^r, C.M., D.D.,

(New Orleans, La.)

Born June 6, 1800, at Wevelghem, Belgium; ordained October 13, 1822, at the C. M. Seminary (the Barrens), St. Louis, Mo., by Bp. Rosati; consecrated at New Orleans, May 24 ('), 1830 (having been appointed August 4, 1829), by Bp. Rosati, assisted by Bp. Portier. He was to have been consecrated on May 16, but he was detained at St. Genevieve, Mo., by illness, and Bp. England, who was to have been one of the Assistants, was obliged to return to his Diocese, and Very Rev. B. (G. ?), Richard, V. G., was Junior Assistant.

Died at New Orleans, of Yellow Fever, on September 4, 1833.

(From Abp. Janssens.)

(1) Dr. Shea, Vol. III. p. 666 (Cath. Ch. in U.S.), says: "Consecrated May 16, with Portier and England as assistants." The account as given in the text, may be found in the "Catholic Press" of Hartford, Conn., copied from the "Bardstown Herald." (F. X. R.)

NEPOMUCENE, RT. REV. ABBOT, O.S.B.,

(Baptized, Charles Jaeger.)

Born February 24, 1844, at Kuttensburg, Bohemia; ordained July 12, 1875, at St. Vincent's Abbey, Pa., by Bp. Domenec; professed O.S.B., at St. Vincent's Abbey, July 11, 1874; elected Prior of St. Procopius, Chicago, May 23, 1888; blessed Abbot, by Abp. Feehen, July 4, 1894.

(From Abbot Nepomucene.)

NEREZ, RT. REV. JOHN CLAUDE, D.D.,

(San Antonio, Tex.)

Born January 12, 1828, at Anse, Dept. Rhone, France; ordained at Galveston, Texas, February 19, 1853, by Bp. Odin, of Galveston; consecrated at San Antonio, May 8, 1881, by Bp. Fitzgerald, assisted by Bp. Manucy and Bp. Dubuis.

Died November 15, 1894, at San Antonio.

(From Bp. Nerez.)

Sub Deacon and Deacon on September 28 and 29, 1852, from the hands of Bp. Odin; administrator of San Antonio, after death of Bp. Pellicer; administrator of Brownsville, after promotion of Bp. Manucy; and acting Vicar Apostolic after death of Dr. Manucy.

NEUMANN, RT. REV. JOHN NEPOMUCENE,

C. SS. R., D.D.,

(Philadelphia, Pa.)

Born Good Friday, March 28, 1811, at Srachatic, Bohemia, Austria, and baptized the same day in the church of St. James the Great; came to the United States in 1836; made Sub Deacon, June 19; Deacon, June 24; ordained Priest, June 25, 1836, in New York city, by Bp. Dubois; was professed C.S.S.R. in 1842, being the first C.S.S.R. professed in the United States. In December, 1846, he was Vice Provincial; consecrated at Baltimore, March 28, 1852, Passion Sunday, by Abp. F. P. Kenrick, assisted by Bp. O'Reilly, of Hartford, and Rev. Francis L'Homme.

Died suddenly at Philadelphia, January 5, 1860; buried under the main altar, St. Peter's Church, Philadelphia.

(From "Life of Bp. Neumann" Berger, and from the C.S.S.R. in U. S. and Rome. Parents, Philip and Agnes (Lebis) Neumann.

In December (15), 1896, began the introduction to the process of Beatification at Rome, bestowing on him the appellation "Venerable."

NORTROP, RT. REV. HENRY PINCKNEY, D.D.,
(Charleston, S. C.)

Born May 5, 1842, at Charleston, S. C.; ordained June 25, 1865, at Rome, Italy, by Card'l Castellache; consecrated at Baltimore, Md., January 8, 1882, by Abp. Gibbons, assisted by Bp. Keane and Bp. Becker; title Bishop of "Rosalia," i. p. i., and Vicar Apostolic of North Carolina. On January 27, 1883, he was promoted Bishop of Charleston.

(From Bp. Northrop.)

O'CONNELL, RT. REV. EUGENE, D.D.,
(Bishop of Grass Valley, Cal.)

Born June 18, 1815, in the Parish of Kings Court, near Navan, Co. Meath, Ireland; ordained June, 1842 ⁽¹⁾, (Trinity Saturday), at Maynooth, Ireland, by Abp. Daniel Murray, of Dublin; consecrated in the Chapel of All Hallows College, Dublin, Ireland, February 3, 1861 ⁽²⁾, having been elected, on September 26, 1860, Titular Bishop of "Flaviopolis," and Vicar Apostolic of Marysville, California. Consecrator, Archbishop Paul Cullen, of Dublin, assisted by Bp. Edward Walsh, of Ossary, and Bp. James Walshe, of Kildare; translated to the new See of Grass Valley, Cal., as Bishop, February 3, 1868; resigned March 17, 1884; received the title "Bishop of 'Joppa,' i. p. i."

Died at Los Angeles, Cal., December 4, 1891.

(Data from letters of Bp. O'Connell to the Author.)

(1) Ordained data from the Cathedral, Archives of Dublin, Ireland.

He left Cork March 14, 1861; landed at New York March 28, 1861; arrived at Marysville, Cal., Saturday June 8, 1861; was inducted on Sunday 9, in St. Joseph's Cathedral, by Abp. Alemany. Bp. O'Connell preached.

(2) The consecration data is from "Irish Register" (Directory) for 1861.

The Archbishop of Dublin in a letter (1896), gives the same, but adds: "Dr. Fortune, ex-president of All Hallows, tells me the assistants were Dr. Cantwell, of Meath, and Dr. Flannery, of Killaloe."

This is certainly an error of memory. They were assistants at the consecration of Bp. Grimley, Coadjutor to the Bishop of Cape of Good Hope, which took place a month before. (F. X. R.)

O'CONNELL, RT. REV. MGR. JOSEPH,

(Dom. Prelate, Brooklyn.)

Born Christmas Day, 1832, at Cork, Ireland; ordained June 20, 1858, at Rome, Italy, by Abp. Ligi-Bussi, Vicegerent, of Cardinal Patrizzi; named Domestic Prelate (Rt. Rev.), October 6, 1894; brief issued November 23, 1894; invested December 17, 1894, at Brooklyn, by Bp. McDonnell.

(Data supplied by Mgr. O'Connell.)

O'CONNOR, RT. REV. JAMES, D.D.,

(Bishop of Omaha, Neb.)

Born September 10, 1823, at Queenstown, Co. Cork, Ireland; ordained March 25, 1848, at Rome, Italy, by Cardinal Fransoni; elected Bishop of "Dibona," i. p. i., and Vicar Apostolic of Nebraska, June 30, 1876, consecrated August 20, 1876, at the seminary of St. Charles Borromeo, Philadelphia, Pa., by Coadjutor Bp. Ryan, of St. Louis, Mo., assisted by Bp. O'Hara and Bp. Shanahan; promoted Bishop of Omaha, Nebraska, October 2, 1885.

Died at Omaha, May 27, 1890.

(Data from Diocesan Archives.)

O'CONNOR, RT. REV. MICHAEL, D.D.,

(Bishop of Pittsburg, Pa.)

Born September 27, 1810, at Queenstown, Co. Cork, Ireland; ordained June 1, 1833, at Rome, Italy, by Cardinal Patrizzi, Bishop of Albano. After his ordination (¹) he went into the diocese of Cork, where he was placed at a small mission at "Cove." In July, 1837, he was made chaplain and confessor to a convent at Done-raile, in the diocese of Cloyne. He did not like the Irish mission, and when Bp. Kenrick, of Philadelphia, was visiting in Ireland, he appealed to him, and received permission to go into the American missions. On October 1, 1838, he was at Liverpool en route for the United States. He was consecrated Bishop of Pittsburg, Pa., in the church of St. Agatha, Rome, Italy, August 15, 1843 (¹), by Cardinal Filippo Fransoni, Prefect of the Propaganda, assisted by Mgr. Acchini, Bishop of Tarsus, and Mgr. Castellani, Bishop of Porfirio; transferred to Erie as Bishop of that See, July 29, 1853; restored to Pittsburg, February 20, 1854; resigned (date of acceptance) May 23, 1860. He entered the Society of Jesus, and, at his own request, all episcopal faculties were withdrawn.

Died at Woodstock (S. J.) College, Md., October 18, 1872.

(1) Letter of Dr. O'Connor to Dr. Paul Cullen. Archives American Catholic Historical Society, Philadelphia.

(2) These data from "Diario Romano," August 20, 1843, also from Archives of Diocese of Liverpool, England, Bishop Sharpless of that See, having been consecrated at the same time. No Record in the United States.

O'DEA, RT. REV. EDWARD JOHN,

(Nesqually, Wash.)

Born November 23, 1856, at Dorchester (near Boston), Mass.; ordained December 23, 1882, at Grand Seminary, Montreal, Canada, by Abp. Edward Charles Fabre, D.D.; consecrated at Vancouver, Wash., on September 8, 1896, by Abp. Gross, assisted by Bp. Lemmens and Bp. Gloireux; appointment received June 13, 1896.

(From Bp. O'Dea.)

ODIN, MT. REV. JOHN MARY, C.M., D.D.,

(Archbishop of New Orleans, La.)

Born February 25, 1801, at Amberlie, France; ordained May 4, 1823 ⁽¹⁾, at the seminary (Barrens), Diocese of St. Louis, Mo., by Bp. Dubourg; consecrated at New Orleans, March 6, 1842, by Bp. Blanc of that See, assisted by Bp. Portier and Bp. Chanche, being appointed Titular Bishop of "Claudiopolis," and Vicar Apostolic of Texas; promoted Bishop of Galveston, April 23, 1847; translated to New Orleans, as Archbishop, February 15, 1861.

Died May 25, 1870, whilst visiting his home at Amberlie, France.

(Data from N. O. Galveston, and from the C. M. in the U.S.)

(1) It is somewhere published that he was ordained by Bp. Rosati. The latter was not consecrated until 1824.

O'FARRELL, RT. REV. MICHAEL JOSEPH, D.D.,

(Trenton, N. J.)

Born December 2, 1832, at Limerick, Ireland; ordained August 18, 1855 ⁽¹⁾, in Limerick Cathedral, by Bp. John Ryan, of Limerick, Ireland; consecrated in New York City, November 1, 1881, by Cardinal McCloskey, assisted by Coadj. Bp. Corrigan and Bp. Loughlin.

Died April 2, 1894, at Trenton, N. J.

(Life of Bp. O'Farrell.)

(1) He joined the S.S. in Paris, France. He entered the New York Diocese as a secular priest.

O'GORMAN, RT. REV. JAMES MICHAEL, (Trappist.)

Born October — 1804 ⁽¹⁾, at Clauna, near Nenagh, Co. Tipperary, Ireland; ordained January — 1843 ⁽²⁾, in the Trappist Cloister, Mount Melleray, Ireland, by the Rt. Rev. Dr. Foran, Bp. of Waterford, Ireland; consecrated in the Cathedral at St. Louis, Mo., May 8, 1859, having been elected Titular Bishop of "Raphanæ," and Vicar Apostolic of Nebraska, on January 18, 1859; election confirmed April 15 of the same year; consecrator, Abp. P. R. Kenrick, assistants, Bp. Miede and Bp. Juncker; Bp. Smythe preaching.

C., on April 19, 1896, having been appointed December 29, 1895; Consecrator Cardinal Gibbons, Assistants Bp. Marty and Bp. Keane, Rector of the Catholic University.

(From Bp. O'Gorman.)

O'HARA, RT. REV. WILLIAM, D.D.,

(Scranton, Pa.)

Born April 14, 1816, at Dungiven, Co. Derry, Ireland; ordained December 21, 1842, at Rome, Italy, by Cardinal Fransoni; consecrated in Cathedral of Philadelphia, Pa., July 12, 1868, by Abp. Wood, assisted by Bp. Elder, of Natchez, and Bp. Lynch; Bp. M. O'Connor preaching the sermon.

(From Bp. O'Hara.)

O'REGAN, RT. REV. ANTHONY, D.D.,

(Chicago, Ill.)

Born at Lavalleyroe, near Cloufad, Diocese of Tuam, Ireland, in 1809 ⁽¹⁾; ordinations, Sub-Deacon, June, 1832 ⁽²⁾, Deacon, June, 1833, both by Abp. Murray, in Chapel of Maynooth College, Ireland; Priest on Saturday before first Sunday in Advent, November, 1834, in Cathedral at Tuam, by Abp. McHale, who called him home to discharge the duties of Professor in St. Jarlith's College, Tuam, Ireland; consecrated at St. Louis, Mo., July 25, 1854, by Abp. P. R. Kenrick, assisted by Bp. Van de Velde, of Natchez, and Bp. Henni; was Administrator of the See of Quincy, Ill., until its suppression in 1857; resigned (date of letter) May 3, 1858, received the Titular See of "Dora," June 25, 1858.

Died November 13, 1866, at Michael's Grove, Brompton (London), England, where he had retired; was buried from Tuam Cathedral at his birthplace.

Rev. James Duggan (later Bishop of Chicago) preached at his consecration.

(1) Abp. McEvilly, of Tuam, writes: "I am sorry to say no record of baptism can be found. * * *"

(2) Ordinations, all records from Tuam.

O'REILLY, RT. REV. MGR. BERNARD,

(Domestic Prelate, Protonotary Apostolic, New York City.)

Born September 29, 1820, in the Parish of Cughall, near Westport, Co. Mayo, Ireland; ordained September 11, 1842, in the Parish Church, at Nicolet, Canada, by Abp. Joseph Signay, of Quebec; nominated Domestic Prelate, September, 15, 1887; nominated Protonotary Apostolic, September 29, 1892.

(Data from Mgr. O'REILLY.)

O'REILLY, RT. REV. BERNARD, D.D.,

(Bishop of Hartford, Conn.)

Born 1803 ⁽¹⁾, in the Townland of Cunnareen, Parish of Columbkille, Co. Longford, Ireland; ordained October 13, 1831, in New York City, by Bp. Kenrick, of Philadelphia; consecrated in St. Patrick's Church, Rochester, New York, on Sunday, November 10, 1850 ⁽²⁾, by Bp. Timon, of Buffalo, assisted by Bp. McCloskey, of Albany, and Bp. Fitzpatrick, of Boston; sermon by Rev. John McElroy; installed in his Cathedral by Bp. Fitzpatrick, assisted by Bp. Timon, on Sunday, November 17, 1850.

Died January, 1856, date unknown; vessel lost at sea while he was returning from Europe ⁽³⁾.

(1) Record of baptism not existing; the month is supposed to be March. (P. F. Columbkille.)

He left Ireland for America January 11, 1825.

(2) "No published record to be found. It was even said by the oldest priests in the Diocese of Rochester, that they doubted if he were consecrated there. The record found in a personal Journal."

(Letter from Rochester.)
The only printed accounts found were in the "Pilot," and from that copied in the "Catholic Herald," Philadelphia. (F. X. R.)

"Bp. O'Reilly went to East Canada in 1825; he then went to St.

Mary's Seminary, Baltimore, and it is stated (erroneously) that he was ordained there. His first Mission was Brooklyn, where he was twice stricken with cholera * * * *; he appears to have visited Maynooth, and to have procured at least one priest there * * * *."

(Letter of Bp. Hoare, of Ardagh, to the Author.)

From Popaganda Archives, copied for this work especially, viz.:

"Mgr. Bernard O'Reilly was appointed Coadjutor with right of future succession, to Mgr. William Tyler, Bishop of Hartford, by brief of July 23, 1850; by another brief of the same date, the same (Mgr. O'Reilly) was created Bishop of Pompeiopolis, i. p. i., which briefs were forwarded from the Propaganda to Mgr. Tyler, Bishop of Hartford, by letter of August 17, 1850."

Furnished by Rev. Thomas O'Reilly, C.C., of Bannagher, Kings Co., Ireland, a nephew of Bp. O'Reilly, viz.:

(3) His last visit to Ireland, was to secure a colony of Brothers to take charge of his schools; he paid a visit to his aged parents; on January 23, 1856, he sailed in the ship Pacific, which never reached any shore. It is supposed that the vessel went down in a storm before February 1.

On one of his visits he took with him to America, a young student of Maynooth College, who afterward became First Bishop of Providence, R. I. (See Hendriken.)

O'REILLY, RT. REV. PATRICK THOMAS, D.D.,

Spalding of that See; consecrated in St. Peter's Church, Washington, D. C., being the first Bishop consecrated in the capitol city of the United States, on the feast of the Seven Sorrows, B. V. M. September 20, 1885, by Abp. Gibbons, assisted by Bp. Keane, of Richmond, and Bp. Northrop, of Charleston; sermon by Bp. Kain, of Wheeling; appointment dated June 16, 1885; installed in his Cathedral, November 1, 1885.

Died at Mobile, Ala., August 10, 1896.

(Data from Bp. O'Sullivan.)

PELLICIER, RT. REV. ANTHONY DOMENEC AMBROSE, (¹)

Born December 7, 1824, at St. Augustine, Fla.; ordained October 15, 1850, at Mobile, Ala., by Bp. Portier, of Mobile; consecrated at Mobile, December 8, 1874, by Abp. Perche, of New Orleans, assisted by Bp. Fitzgerald, of Little Rock, and Bp. Gibbons, of Richmond; title, Bishop of San Antonio, Texas.

Died April 14, 1880, at San Antonio, Texas.

(Birth data from Records, by favor of Bp. Moore, all other data from Rev. C.M., S.J.)

(1) Copy from baptismal records at St. Augustine, Florida, the name is spelled Pellicier, viz.: "Antonio Domenico Ambrosio Pellicier, born December 7, 1824." Baptized July 5, 1825, by Rev. — McCarthy, of St. Mary's, Georgia. (No priest stationed at St. Augustine.)

PENALVERT Y'CARDENAS, RT. REV. LUIS DE (¹),
(Bishop of Louisiana.)

Born April 3, 1749; baptized April 12 (¹), at Havana, Cuba, West Indies; ordained April 4, 1772 (²), at Havana, by Rt. Rev. Santiago Jose Etchevarria, Bishop of Havana; consecrated in that city in 1793 (³)—Bull of appointment dated April 25, 1793—by Rt. Rev. Josef de Trespalacion Y'Verdeja. On July 20, 1801, he was translated to Guatemala as Archbishop (⁴); resigned March 1, 1806 (⁵); took no Titular See, retiring from all episcopal work (⁶); went to his native city July 17, 1806.

Died July 17, 1810, at Havana.

(1) The name "Penalvert," is thus spelled by Judge Martin, and Charles Gayerre, the historian of Louisiana; both are good authorities, the former because he lived at that epoch, and is generally exact, the latter because he was well acquainted with the Spanish language, and had access to state documents, both his grandfather and father having occupied eminent positions under the Spanish rule; besides, Penalvert, as commonly used, has no meaning; Penalvert, a corruption of "Peñal Verde," may mean, Green Rock; the final "t" may have been dropped in consequence of the Cuban pronunciation, which softens, and even drops the hard consonants at the end of words.

(2) Birth.—Shea, in Vol. II., "Church in U. S.," says he was born in 1719, an error of thirty years in the record.

"Son of Don Diego de Peñalvert, and Doña Louisa de Cardenas.
(Records, Cathedral at Havana.)

All dates from records at Havana.

(3) Ordination, from the records at Havana by favor of the present ordinary, 1896.

Tonsure, December 21, 1764, Sub Deacon, 1770, Deacon, June, 1770; received degree of D.D., 1771; made Vic. Gen'l. of Havana, 1773.

(4) The Bull of his appointment was dated April 25, 1793; he arrived in Louisiana July 17, 1795, and took possession August 2, 1795; his letter (in Gayerre, Spanish Domination, p. 376, Edition 1886), leaves no doubt as to his coming to Louisiana, although Shea (Decourcy), Edn.

Kenedy, p. 613, speaks of his coming, and leaves the impression that his consecration was later.
(Letter of Rev. * * * * *, S. J.)

Also Spalding's "Life of Flaget," Edition, 1862, p. 161, gives date of taking possession of his See.

(5) He came to Guatemala June 3, 1802, and took possession of his Cathedral June 26; received his Pallium in the Chapel at the hands of the Bishop of Chiapa, Don Ambrosio Llano. (F. X. R.)

(From Spanish MSS. sent me from Diocese of Guatemala, 1896.)

(6) Gams, "Series Episcoporum."

(7) "He fell ill with a malady of the eyes; was cured by a remedy made of the flowers of the Romero Plant, given him by La Señora Doña Juana de Peñol, Marquesa de Ayacuena; he spent his income in charity and (beneficia) in Guatemala, gave the greater part of $62,000 toward building the hospital of San Juan de Dios; built a home for young girls, and after retiring (renuncia de la Mitra), he spent his life in Havana in unceasing charitable work."

(From Spanish MSS. received from Guatemala, 1896.)

Letter of Abp. of Guatemala, dated from Costa Rico: "I am exiled from my See * * * *. There are no records of Dr. Penalvert there; he was compelled to retire by reason of sight sickness. He would receive no Episcopal Jurisdiction, or Administration at Havana after retiring; he only returned there as to his fatherland."

(† R. Casanora Y'Estrado, Archbishop of Guatemala.)

There is a confusion of names in the writings of historians; Cuba, Santiago, Santiago de Cuba, Havana, are curiously mixed up. In 1772 Louisiana depended on the Diocese of Cuba, but they were two, Santiago and Havana. Fray Cirillo, O.S.F., came to reside in Louisiana as Coadjutor of the Bishop of Cuba. Which Bishop? He addressed his report to Bp. Etchevarria (Hetchearria), his heirarchical superior (query). Was he Bishop of Havana? The most plausible explanation is, that Louisiana depended on Havana as the nearest See, and the most commonly mentioned; that Don Etchevarria was Bishop of Havana in 1792, and that confusion arose, i. e., of using the words Bishop of Santiago, from the name of that Bishop, Santiago Etchevarria, in this hypothesis.

(From "Havana Records State and Church," taken for this work by Fathers Amat, and Tenzas, S. J., of Havana.)

Transfer to Guatemala: Clarke is right (deceased Bishops). "The step was determined on out of discouragement; his first dispatch shows traces of it; but now the treaty of St. Ildefonso (September 15, 1800) had become known, which ceded Louisiana to the French Republic, and French Jacobinism and Freemasonry made more noise than the good and holy Spanish Bishop could bear, hence his transfer.

(Letter of Rev. W. —, S. J., of the Diocese N. O.)

PERCHE, MT. REV. NAPOLEON JOSEPH, D.D.

Born January 30, 1805, at Angers (Maine et Loire), France; ordained September 19, 1829⁽¹⁾, at Seminary of Beaupreau, Angers, France, by Mgr. Montault de Isles, Bishop of Angers; consecrated at New Orleans, La., on May 1, 1870, by Bp. Rosencrans, of Columbus, assisted by Bp. Feehan, of Nashville, and Bp. Foley, of Chicago; received Title Bishop of "Abdera," i. p. i., and Coadjutor to New Orleans; succeeded as Archbishop of New Orleans, May 25, 1870; received Pallium from hands of Pius IX., in 1871.

Died December 27, 1883, at New Orleans.

Came to U. S. with Bp. Flaget, in 1837.

(1) Date and place discovered in a MS. sent me by Rev. F —, C. SS. R., Diocese of New Orleans.

PERSICO, RT. REV. IGNATIUS,

(O. Min. Cap.)

Born January 30, 1823, at Naples, Italy; baptized in the Church of St. George the Great, and named "Camillo, Guglielmo, Maria, Pietro." The parents names were, Francisco Saverio Persico, and Giuseppino Pennachio. The name Ignatius, was taken when he entered the Order of Minor Capuchins (¹). He was ordained Priest January 24, 1846 (²), at Naples, by Mgr. Pasca, Bishop of Nola. On March 8, 1854, he was elected Coadjutor to the Vicar Apostolic of Bombay, India, and named Bishop of "Gratianople," i. p. i. He was consecrated at Bombay, India, on Pentecost Sunday, June 4, 1854, in the Cathedral of "Our Lady of Hope" (B. V. M. de Spe), by Rt. Rev. Anastasius Hartman, O. M. C., Titular Bishop of "Derbe," Vicar Apostolic of Bombay, assisted by Father Walter Steins, S.J. (who in 1860 became Vicar Apostolic of Bombay), and Father Thomas, a Passione, o. m. c. Bp. Persico did not succeed to the Vicariate of Bombay; the successor was Bp. Canoz, S.J., in June, 1858 (³). Dr. Persico was made Vicar Apostolic of Hindostan and Thibet, with residence at Agra, in 1856; he resigned in 1860; on March 20, 1870, he was preconized, and on July 16, 1870, he was formally transferred to Savannah, Ga (U. S. A.), as Bishop of that Vacant See; he resigned Savannah, by letter of December, 1872; his last office in that city was the preaching of a sermon in the Cathedral on Sunday, April 27, 1873, one week before Bp. Gross took the Sede. Bp. Persico was translated to the See of "Boлено," i. p. i., June 20, 1874; on July 15, 1878, he was made Bishop of the United Dioceses of Acquino, Pontecowo, and Sora, in East Indies, which he resigned the same year on account of ill health; named Titular Archbishop of "Damietta," March 4, 1887; sent as Commissary Ap. to Ireland in June, 1887; created Cardinal Priest, January 16, 1893; made Prefect of the "Congregatione S. Reliquiarum e Indulgentiarum."

Died at Rome, Italy, December 7, 1895.

(1) "Life of Cardinal Persico," by Fr. Bonaventure, O.M.C., of Naples, sent me by Cardinal San Felice, together with a letter verifying this data.

(2) Dr. Shea, in "Catholic Hierarchy in U. S.," erroneously gives January 25 as the date.

(3) Verified by copy of the record in "Liber Ordinationum" sent the author by Abp. Theodore Dalhoff, of Bombay. He had been in the United States for his health since 1863, and labored in the Charleston Missions; joined the O. Min. Cap. in 1848.

His missionary labors in India were not very great; he visited the military stations where Catholic Chaplains resided; he was greatly liked, being very courteous and affable; preached regularly in his Cathedral, having a good command of English, and a limited knowledge of Hindostanee. During the mutiny, 1857, he was forced to take refuge in the Fort at Agra, with his Religious and Orphans, but the Religious Institutions suffered at the hands of the mutineers. When he left India, homeward bound, he was shipwrecked on the coast of Ceylon, barely escaping with his life.

(Letter of Rev. William Gleeson, who was an associate of Dr. Persico, to the Author.)

Rev. P. Mackin, Catholic Chaplain at Kausauli, India, writes me under date of June 1, 1897: "Bp. Carli having obtained permission from Propaganda to visit Rome on urgent private affairs, Bp. Persico was appointed Vicar Apostolic of Agra, to officiate for him ad. it., and as Bp. Carli was later informed, Bp. Persico became permanent Vicar Apostolic of Agra. The former was not certain whether he would return or not to Agra; he mentioned this uncertainty to me, probably as he intended, in case of return, to send me to Rome to teach English to those Priests intended for the Agra Missions * * * * *"

(Yours Sincerely, P. Mackin, Chaplain.)

PHELAN, RT. REV. RICHARD, D.D.,

(Pittsburg, Pa.)

Born January 1, 1828, at Tralee, near Ballyragget, Co. Limerick, Ireland; ordained May 4, 1854, at Pittsburg, by Bp. M. O'Connor; consecrated at Pittsburg, August 2, 1885, by Abp. Ryan, of Philadelphia, assisted by Bp. Mullen and Bp. Shanahan; was made Bishop of "Cibyra," i. p. i., and Coadjutor to Pittsburg; succeeded to Pittsburg, December 7, 1889.

(From Bp. Phelan.)

PORTIER, RT. REV. MICHAEL,

(Mobile, Ala.)

Born September 7, 1795, at Montbrison, France; ordained June — 1818 ⁽¹⁾, probably Saturday before Trinity Sunday, at St. Louis, Mo., by Bp. Dubourg; consecrated at St. Louis, November 5, 1826, by Bp. Rosati, assisted by Rev. Donatian Oliver and Rev. William Quickenborn; title Bishop of "Oleno," i. p. i., and Vicar Apostolic of Florida and Alabama; transferred to See of Mobile, Ala., May 15, 1829.

Died May 14, 1859, at Mobile, Ala.

(1) The only record to be found after a long search, is part of a letter of Bp. Portier's, found in "Annales Propaganda, Vol. I., letters dated at New Orleans, April 15, 1818," and opens, viz., " * * * * Ma destination est anjouré 'hui fixée, mon poste est à la Nouvelle Orleans, je quitte cette ville au mois de Mai pour mon ordination, et de suite J'y reviens, etc. * * * * "

(Letter to Challeton, Vic.-General at Lyons, France.)

It is thought that he may have been ordained about Pentacost (feast of).

Fr. Conway S. J., says it was certainly during the Pentacost quarter Tense.

PRENDERGAST, RT. REV. EDMUND FRANCIS, D.D.,

Born May 3, 1843 at Clonmel, Co. Tipperary, Ireland, second door from the west gate; ordained at the Cathedral, Philadelphia, Pa., November 17, 1865, by Bp. James F. QUINN, RT. REV. MGR. WILLIAM,

(Domestic Prelate, New York City.)

Born near the Village of Ballybofey, Parish of Donoughmore, Co. Donegal, Ireland, May 21, 1820 (''); ordained — 17, 1845 (?), in the Cathedral of New York, by Coad. Bp. John McCloskey, of New York. In May, 1881, he was made Private Chamberlain to the Pope, and in December of the same year Domestic Prelate; it was announced to him at Christmas time, by Cardinal McCloskey; there was no ceremony of Investiture, and he did not wear his Purple for many months afterward. On the death of Abp. Purcell, of Cincinnati, Mgr. Quinn's name was proposed for that See.

He died at Paris, France, Friday, April 15, 1887. Buried in New York City, Wednesday, May 18, 1887, from the Cathedral.

(Verified by Fr. L., C.S.S.R.)

(1) "There is no Record of his baptism at his native place; they do not extend back so far." (Letter to Author.)

(2) Catholic Herald, Philadelphia, January, 1846. It is thought the month was December.

RADEMACHER, RT. REV. JOSEPH, D.D.,

(Nashville, Tenn.)

Marechal; consecrated at Cincinnati, O., St. Peters Cathedral, March 19, 1844, Feast of St. Joseph, by Abp. Purcell, assisted by Bp. Miles, of Nashville, and Bp. M. O'Connor, of Pittsburg, Bp. Purcell preaching the sermon.

Died March 9, 1855, at Charleston, S. C.

Hoffmann's Directory gives date of death as March 6.

REZE, RT. REV. FREDERIC, D.D. (¹),

(Bishop of Detroit, Mich.)

Born February 6, 1791 (¹), at Vienenberg, Hanover, Diocese of Hildesheim, Germany; ordained, Trinity ordinations, 1822 (¹), at Rome, Italy, by Cardinal Zurla (¹), Prefect of Propaganda; appointed Bishop of Detroit, February 25, 1833; consecrated at Cincinnati, Ohio, October 6, 1833 (¹), by Bp. Rosati, assisted by Bp. Flaget, and Coadjutor Bp. David; retired, no date known, 1837 (¹).

Died December 30, 1871 (¹), at Hildesheim, Germany, at the Mother House of the Sisters of Charity, and was buried in the Cathedral of that city, on January 1, 1872.

(Letter from the Bishop of Hildesheim.)

(1) The name, usually spelled "Reze" or "Reese," is given in a copy of the baptismal record, sent me by the Bishop of Hildesheim, Germany, as follows: "Reese, John Frederic Conrad, born of John Gotfried Reese, and Caroline Alrutz (Leg. Conj.), born on February 6, 1791 (in loco), Viennenberg, etc."

(Letter to Author.)

(2) Mr. E. Andries, of the Stimme de Warheit, published at Detroit, who made some searches for this work, at the suggestion of Fr. Cassimir, o. min. Cap., says: "He was born at Hildesheim; he was drafted into military service, and was under General Blucher, as a dragoon, at the battle of Waterloo; he came to the Diocese of Ohio, with Bp. Fenwick, in 1825; he was sent by Dr. Fenwick to Europe, in 1827, to secure German Priests, and money aid; he returned in 1828."

(Letter of Mr. E. Andries)

Father Benedict Niethart, C.S.S.R., in a letter (1896), says Bp. Reese was born in the village of "Wiedelah," near Viennenberg, Diocese of Hildesheim, Hanover.

(3) Date unknown; the supposed time is "Trinity Ordinations."

(Letter, Rev. F. X. R., C.S.S.R., Rome.)

Father Baumgartner, of Detroit, writes, "I can find no Record of Ordination in our Archives."

(4) Name of Ordaining Prelate is correct (Fr. C., O'McC.).

(5) Shea, "Church in U. S.," Vol. III., gives October 3, as date of consecration. Hoffman's "Catholic Directory," gives October 6. The latter is correct; a search and examination made by Rev. Frank O'Brien, and Mgr. Joos, reveals the fact that October 6, is correct. (F. X. R.)

(6) He left his See, suspended from all Episcopal Jurisdiction, being ill from a disease of the brain. He was called to Rome, where he remained until he was removed to the place of his death. The fact that he held the title "Bishop of Detroit" until death, proves that he did not resign (see letter of Bp. Hildesheim); he performed some duties at Rome, where he resided, in the Convent of the Church of San Lorenzo, in Lucina, notably his officiating at the obsequies of the Prince Borghese, in 1841.

(7) Hoffmann's "Catholic Directory," says he died "December 19;" another authority gives "December 27."

It is also stated that he died at Lappenberg, but the Bishop of Hildesheim, gives the latter city as the place of death.

He was the first Bishop in the United States of German birth.

Copy of Letter of Bishop of Hildesheim: "Reverendissimum Dominum Joannem Fredericum Conradum Reese, Ep'm. Detroitensis, esse natum die 6, Februarii, 1791, in loco Viennenburg (Prov. Hanover, Dioceses Hildesheim), et mortuorum die 30, Decembris 1871, in Hildesheim, est filius Joannis Godfredi Reese et uxoris Carolinæ natal, Alruts, Anno 1859, mense Aprilis hue venit aegrotus et exinde commorabatur in domo matrice Congregationis Sororum Charitatis, Sepultus est in coemeterio Cathedralis nostræ die 1, Januarii, 1872. Inscriptio lapidis, sepulchralis es. Fredericus Reese, Primus Episcopus Diocesis Detroitensis in America, Septentrionali, natus 1791, in Viennenburg, obiit in Hildesheim.

†Wilhelmus, Epis'c. Hildesiensis, June 11, 1896.

Franciscus Xav. Reuss, in Philadelphia.

RICHTER, RT. REV. HENRY JOSEPH, D.D., ids, April 22, 1883, by Coadjutor Bishop Elder, assisted by Bp. Borgess, and Bp. McCloskey, of Louisville, Ky.

(Data from Grand Rapids.)

RIORDAN, MT. REV. PATRICK WILLIAM,

(San Francisco.)

Born August 27, 1841, at Chatham, N. B. (British America); ordained June 10, 1865, at Mechlin, Belgium, by Cardinal Engelbert Stercks; consecrated at Chicago, Ill., September 16, 1883, by Abp. Feehan, assisted by Bp. McCloskey, of Louisville, and Bp. Chatard, of Vincennes; Title Bishop of "Cabesa," i. p. i., and Coadjutor to San Francisco; succeeded to See of San Francisco as Archbishop, December 28, 1884; Pallium, September 20, 1885.

(Data from Abp. Riordan.)

ROBOT RT. REV. ISIDORE, O. S. B., D.D.,

(First Prefect Apostolic of Indian Territory.)

Born July 18, 1837, at Tharoiseau, Diocese of Sens, France; entered the O. S. B. in 1859, at the Monastery of Pierre-qui-Vire; made Simple Vows, May 1, 1862; ordained December 20, 1862, at Sens, France, by Mgr. Mellou Joly, D.D.; made Solemn Vows August, 13, 1871, and professed at the Monastery, Ste Marie, Pierre-qui-Vire, in the Diocese of Sens; created Prefect Apostolic by Pope Pius IX., July 9, 1876; Blessed Abbott of Sacred Heart Abbey, Indian Territory, September 1, 1878, by Mgr. Nouvel, Bishop of Quimper, France.

Died February 15 (Tuesday), 1887, at Dallas, Texas.

(All data from Monasteries of "Pierre-qui-Vire" and "Sacred Heart.")

ROSATI, RT. REV. JOSEPH, C.M.,

(St. Louis, Mo.)

Born January 12, 1789 (¹), at Sora, Naples, Italy. Parents, John Rosati and Vienna Soresi; ordained February 10, 1811 (²), at Rome Italy, (probably) by Cardinal Somaglia (no record at all); consecrated at Donaldsonville (then called "Ascension Parish"), La., March 25, 1824 (³), by Bp. Dubourg, of New Orleans, assisted by V. Rev. — Sibourd, V.G., and V. Rev. Anthony Sedalla. Title Bishop of "Tenagre," i. p. i., and Coadjutor to New Orleans; was appointed Bishop of New Orleans on March 14, 1826, but would not accept; transferred to St. Louis, Mo., as First Bishop, March 20, 1827; Administrator of Louisiana, 1826 till 1829.

Died September 25, 1843, at Rome, Italy (while on a visit there).

(1) Birth.—Shea, "Church in U. S.," Vol. III., says: "Born January 13." — Clarke, "Lives of deceased Bishops," Vol. I., p. 353, gives January 30. The French "Cong'n of the Mission," give January 12.

(Letter to the Author.)

(2) A good authority in the Diocese of St. Louis, who made extensive search some years ago, after this date, writes me that there was no record of this ordination at Rome. The Civil (Napoleonic) Government had forbidden the C. M. to have any more Priests ordained for the Order, but that the Holy Father had given permission for that ordination, without having it made known, against any investigation. "It occurred probably in 1814, etc."

(Letter of — —.)

Inquiry and search brought me in correspondence with the Father Superior of the "Mission Mere," Paris, France. The reply is: "He was dispensed of age, and was ordained secretly, February 10, 1811."

(Letter, Mission Mere, C. M. Paris.)

Clarke gives New Orleans as the place, Shea gives Donaldsonville; Father C. M. W., S.J., writes me, "Shea is right; the Bishop at those troublesome times had not possession of his Church at New Orleans (Sede), and could not officiate there; he was consecrated at (Donaldsonville), Ascension (annales 1825). The assistants to the consecration were Fathers de la Croix and Saciare; the assistants to Bp. Rosati were (as are usually given), Rev. Sibourd and Rev. Sedalla."

He sailed from Bordeaux, France, June 13, 1816, for America, and landed at Baltimore, Md., on July 26, of the same year.

ROSENCRANS, RT. REV. SYLVESTER HORTON, D.D., (Bishop of Columbus, O.)

Born February 5, 1827, at Homer, O.; ordained July 16, 1852, at Rome (Propaganda College), Italy, by the Cardinal Vicar of Rome; consecrated at Cincinnati, O., March 25, 1862, having been elected Titular Bishop of "Pompeopolis," and Auxiliary to the Bishop of Cincinnati, on December 19, 1861, brief dated December 23, 1861; consecrator, Abp. Purcell, assisted by Bp. Spalding, of Louisville, and Bp. Luers; translated to Columbus, O., as Bishop, March 3, 1868.

Died October 21, 1878, Monday evening, the day following the consecration of the Cathedral, at the Sacred Heart Convent, Columbus, where he had resided for the last two years of his life. Bp. Rosencrans was a convert.

In the distribution of Premiums at the Propaganda, on September 4, 1861, he took Premiums for "Sacred Scripture," "Dogmatic Theology," "Ecclesiastical History," and "Gregorian Music." (Letter from Rome.)

RYAN, RT. REV. JAMES, D.D., (Alton, Ill.)

Born June 17, 1848, at Thurles, Co. Tipperary, Ireland; ordained December 24, 1871, at Louisville, Ky., by Bp. W. G. McCloskey; consecrated at Alton, May 1, 1888, by Bp. Spalding, of Peoria, assisted by Bp. McCloskey, of Louisville, and Bp. Janssen, of Belleville.

(Data supplied by Bp. Ryan.)

RYAN, MT. REV. PATRICK JOHN, D.D.,

(Philadelphia, Pa.)

Born February 20, 1831, at Cloneyharp, near Thurles, Co. Tipperary, Ireland; ordained September 8, 1853, at St. Louis, Mo., by Abp. P. R. Kenrick; consecrated Bishop of "Tricomia," i. p. i., and Coadjutor to St. Louis, Mo., in that city, April 14, 1872, by Abp. P. R. Kenrick, assisted by Bp. Feehan, of Nashville, and Bp. Melcher, promoted Archbishop Coadjutor, and translated to the Titular See of "Salamis" (in Greece), on January 6, 1884; transferred as Archbishop of Philadelphia, June 8, 1884.

(All data from Abp. Ryan.)

RYAN, RT. REV. MGR. ROGER,

(Domestic Prelate, Diocese of Dubuque, Ia.)

Born April 6, 1843, near the town of Kiltuly, Co. Limerick, Ireland; ordained March 13, 1869, at St. Francis' Seminary, Milwaukee, Wis., by Abp. Henni; named Domestic Prelate, March 4, 1896; invested by Abp. Hennessy, at Dubuque, Trinity Sunday, May 31, 1896.

(Data supplied by Mgr. Ryan.)

RYAN, RT. REV. STEPHEN VINCENT, C.M., D.D.,

(Buffalo, N. Y.)

Born January 1, 1825, at Almonte, Ontario, Upper Canada; ordained June 24, 1849, Feast of St. John Baptist, at St. Louis, Mo., by Abp. P. R. Kenrick; consecrated in St. Joseph's Cathedral, Buffalo, November 8, 1868 (1), by Abp. McCloskey, of New York, assisted by Bp. Loughlin (?) and Bp. McQuaid, and Bp. Conroy, of Albany. Coadjutor Bp. Ryan, of St. Louis, preached.

Died April 10, 1896, at 6:00 o'clock A. M., at Buffalo.

Parents names, Martin Ryan, and Catherine McCarthy. He took the name of Michael in confirmation; was made Visitor of the C. M. in 1857, on the anniversary of his ordination.

(1) All data given is from the pen of Bp. Ryan, to the Author. He could not remember any name except Bp. Loughlin, as assistant at his consecration. Rev. J. E. Quigley, of Buffalo Diocese, gave me the names of Bps. McQuaid and Conroy, adding that Rev. Francis McNierney (later Bishop of Albany), was Master of Ceremonies. (F. X. R.)

SALPOINTE, MT. REV. JOHN BAPTIST, D.D.,

(Santa Fe, New Mexico.)

Born February 21, 1825, at St. Maurice, France; ordained December 20, 1851, at Clermont, Ferrand, France, by Mgr. Louis Charles Feron; consecrated at the same place, June 20, 1869, by Mgr. Feron, assisted by Bp. Lebreton, of Le Puy, France, and Bp. Dubuis, of Galveston, U. S. A., having been elected Bishop of "Doryla," i. p. i., and Vicar Apostolic of Arizona; brief dated September 25, 1868. On April 22, 1884, he was made Coadjutor to the Archbishop of Santa Fe; on October 8, 1884 ('), promoted Titular Archbishop of "Anazarba;" succeeded to the See of Santa Fe July 18, 1885; resigned January 7, 1894; received the Title "Archbishop of 'Tomi,' i. p. i.," January 21, 1894. He retired to Busieres, Pruns, Paraigneperse, Puy de Dome, France, where he resides (1896). (All data from Mgr. Salpointe.)

(1) The Catholic Directory, 1896, gives "October 11."

Mesagu y' Costa, of Lerida; received the title Bishop of "Aulon," i. p. i., and Vicar Apostolic of Brownsville, Texas, by brief dated Rome, July 3, 1890; installed May 21, 1891.

(Data from Bp. Verdaguer.)

VEROT, RT. REV. JEAN MARCELLUS PIERRE AUGUSTE, S.S. D.D.,

Born May 23, 1805 ⁽¹⁾, at Le Puy, Haute Loire, France; ordained September 20, 1828 ⁽²⁾, at Paris, France, by Mgr. de Quelin, Archbishop of Paris, in his private Chapel; consecrated at Baltimore, Md., April 25, 1858, by Abp. F. P. Kenrick, assisted by Bp. John McGill, and Bp. John Barry; title, Bishop of "Danaba," i. p. i., and Vicar Apostolic of Florida; translated to Savannah, Ga., July, 1861; Bishop Administrator of Florida, until 1866; translated to St. Augustine, Fla., March 11, 1870.

Died Saturday, June 10, 1876 (Ember week), at St. Augustine, Fla., on the anniversary of his ordination to the Deaconate.

(1) The date of birth is from the Annals of S. Sulpice, France, received after a correspondence with Dr. Verot's nephew. O'Connell, "Catholicity in Carolinas and Georgia," p. 543, gives 1804 as the year.

(2) Ordained, by dispensation of age, copy of record from Mgr. the Archbishop of Paris, (1895), "dispens. sup. def. oetatis ex indulto, June 24, 1827, par Mgr. de Quelin."

Father Hugon, nephew of the Bishop, says, "The only thing I know positively, is, that I heard my mother say that she was born in 1809, and that he was four years older * * * * *; (?) he came to this country about two years after ordination, as a teacher for the then SS. College * * * *. It is a strange thing that most of our Priests, and Sisters die during the Ember week. The Bishop died during the September Ember week."

This is an error, he died during June Ember week. (F. X. R.)

VERTIN, RT. REV. JOHN, D.D.,

(Marquette, Mich.)

Born February 17, 1844, at Doblice Parice, Carnolia,

Diocese of Leybach; ordained at Marquette, August 31, 1866, being the first priest ordained in that city, by Bp. Baraga; consecrated at Neegaunee, Mich., September 14, 1879, by Bp. Coadjutor Heiss, assisted by Bp. Borgess, and Bp. J. L. Spalding.
(Data from Bp. Vertin.)

WADHAMS, RT. REV. EDGAR PHILIP, D.D.,
(Ogdensburg, N. Y.)

Born May 17, 1817 ⁽¹⁾, at Lewes, Essex Co., N. Y.; ordained January 15, 1850, at the pro cathedral, Albany, N. Y., by Bp. McCloskey, of Albany; consecrated in same city, May 5, 1872, by Abp. McCloskey of New York, assisted by Bp. Williams, of Boston, and Bp. de Goesbriand. Bp. Wadhams was a convert.

Died at Ogdensburg, December 5, 1891.

(1) Hoffmann's Directory gives May 21, as date of birth. The date given in the text is from the official records of the Diocese, sent me by Dr. Wadhams himself.

WATTERSON, RT. REV. JOHN AMBROSE, D.D.,
(Columbus, Ohio.)

Born May 27, 1844, at Bairdstown ⁽¹⁾, Westmoreland Co., Pa., of John Sylvester and Sarah (McAfee) Watterson; ordained August 9, 1868, at St. Vincent's Abbey, (O. S. B.) Pa., by Bp. Domenec, of Pittsburg; consecrated in St. Joseph's Cathedral, Columbus, O., August 8, 1880, having been appointed by Rome, March 14, 1880; consecrator Abp. Elder, assisted by Bp. McCloskey, of Louisville, and Bp. Tuigg; sermon by Bp. Fitzgerald.

(Data from Bp. Watterson.)

(1) It is generally given out that the Bishop was born at Blairsville. This arises out of the fact that the two places are separated only by the Conemaugh river, and were practically called by the latter name.

(Letter of A. V. D. Watterson, Esq., to Author.)

WHELAN, RT. REV. JAMES, O.P., D.D.,
(Nashville, Tenn.)

Born December 8, 1823 ⁽¹⁾, at Kilkenny, Ireland; ordained August 2, 1846 ⁽²⁾, at the Dominican Convent, Somerset, O., by Abp. Purcell; consecrated at St. Louis, Mo., May 8, 1859 ⁽³⁾, by Abp. P. R. Kenrick, assisted by Bp. Juncker, and Bp. Miede; Bp. Smythe preached the sermon; his title was Bishop of "Marcopolis," and Coadjutor to the Bishop of Nashville; succeeded to the See of Nashville, February 21, 1860; resigned by letter dated in February, 1864; accepted in September of the same year, when he was appointed Bishop of "Diocletianopolis," i. e., which he probably declined.

Died suddenly, February 20, 1878 ('), at the Dominican Convent, at Zanesville, Ohio.

(1) O'Connell, "Catholicity in Carolinas, etc.," says he was born in Dublin; also that he was ordained 1850.

(2) Some of the Fathers, O. P., give 1847 as year ordained, but by a letter of November 30, 1895, from the O. P. Monastery, Somerset, O., the date is discovered to be as given, August 2, 1846. He was ordained Deacon the same day, both orders at the St. Joseph's Monastery. He joined the O. P. at Springfield, Ky., in 1839.

(3) This data has been variously given; one account gives Bps. Smythe and O'Gorman as assistants. The names as given in the text are taken from a lately discovered letter, which also establishes the date of ordination. This letter, written by Rev. A. O. Walker, O. P., states that Dr. Whelan was ordained on the same day on which he (Walker) was made Sub Deacon, August 2, 1846. The letter quotes from a letter (also produced) of Dr. Whelan, regarding his receipt of the brief of appointment as Bishop, of which the following is a copy. After telling how "one day while coming out of class I was surprised by being handed some documents from Rome * * * *," being a Bull of appointment to Coadjutorship * * * *. That first does now bear the following endorsement:

[Manus Consecratoris in Rev'mo. Patre Jacobo Whelan, in Ecclesia Cathedralis St. Ludovici, die Festi apparitionis S. Michaelis Archangela de nempe octavo Maii † Petrus Ricardus, Archiep. St. Ludovici, Consecrator; † Joannes Baptista, Ep. "Messemensis;" † Henry Damianus, Ep. Altonensis.]

(4) This new title is from Gams, "Series Ep'm." I can find no other authority for it. If he did not hold it afterwards, he probably declined any title. This it seems was the case, as his brethren in the Order say he had no Episcopal title after returning to the Monastery.

WHELAN, RT. REV. RICHARD VINCENT, D.D.,

Born January 28, 1809, at Baltimore, Md. ('); ordained May 1, 1831, at Versailles, France, by Mgr. de Quelen, of Paris; consecrated at Baltimore, Md., March 21, 1841, by Abp. Eccleston, assisted by Bp. Fenwick, of Boston, and Bp. Hughes of New York; title, Bishop of Richmond, sermon by Rev. Alexander L. Hitzelberger (S. J.); translated to Wheeling, W. Va., at his own request July 23, 1850. He was the Senior Bishop in the United States at the time of his death.

Died July 7, 1874, at St. Agnes Hospital, Baltimore.

(1) Parents David Whelan, and Sarah Maccubbin.

There seems to be no available record of his consecration. Search made at Baltimore, Richmond and Wheeling, bring the one reply: "No data." John T. Riley made search in vain; Mgr. Sullivan did the same. The numbers of clergy and religious houses in the diocese have no account of it. There is no account of it in the Baltimore "Sun," "Freeman's Journal," "Miscellany," "Advocate," nor in many other papers examined. Bishop Hughes and Bishop Fenwick were the only bishops present at the time. They with Bishop Whelan received their titles of D.D. at the same time shortly after Dr. Whelan's consecration. They were also consecrator and assistants at the consecration of Bishop McCloskey, of New York. They had always been the best of friends and associates in all episcopal ceremonies when possible.

WHITFIELD, MT. REV. JAMES, D.D.,

(Archbishop of Baltimore.)

Born November 3, 1770 (¹), at Liverpool, England; ordained July 24, 1809 (²), in the Primatial Church, Lyons, France, by Mgr. Simon, Bishop of Grenoble. He was appointed (March 28, 1828) Titular Bishop of "Appolonia," i. p. i., and Coadjutor to Abp. Marechal, who died before the consecration. He was therefore consecrated Archbishop of Baltimore, in that city, May 25, 1828, by Bishop Flaget, assisted by Bishop Dubois, and Bp. Conwell.

Died at Baltimore, October 19, 1834.

(1) From Archives of the Diocese of Lyons, France.

(2) From same Archives, both by letter from His Grace the Archbishop of Lyons, who writes: "He received Tonsure and minor orders (dimissoire du Cardinal Caprara, residant a Paris) July 24, 1808, at the hands of Cardinal Fesch, Archbishop of Lyons. On July 22, 1809, he received Sub Deaconate, the next day made Deacon, and the following day ordained priest, at the hands of Mgr. Simon."

(Letter to author dated March 12, 1896.)

INDEX

OF THE TITULAR SEES HELD BY PRELATES IN THE UNITED STATES SINCE THE YEAR 1800.

By FRANCIS X. REUSS.

Previous to February 28, 1882, on which date Pope Leo XIII., declared the old form, "in partibus infidelium" abolished, all the ancient Sees which had been overrun by the Mohammedan's (principally) had been administered, or at least, held in a sort of line of succession by Bishops called after such Sees "in infidel parts," and governing some district not yet erected into Diocese, of which they were Vicars Apostolic; or as Coadjutors, Bishops' Auxiliary, Apostolic Delegates, and Papal Nuncio's. The form i. p. i., dates back to the time of Pope Leo X., 1513-21. Although these titles really did exist before, as Pope Gregory the Great provided for several devastated Sees in Illyria, by appointing the Bishops to vacant Sees in Italy, until they might be able to return. Titular Sees applied only to those localities where there were Christian communities collected, after the original See had been despoiled and lost to Christianity. Titles "i. p. i." were also given to Bishops over a Catholic people who were more or less interfered with by a Protestant government. This was the case in the American Colonies, who were governed by Vicars Apostolic placed in England, until the consecration of Bishop Carroll. Titular Bishops can attend general councils, and are only translated on the same conditions as those governing actual Sees. They, however, are not obliged to make visits "ad Limina," to Rome, since they have no Diocese of which they need to make report. The majority of these devastated and ancient Sees are in Asia Minor and Africa. Those in Asia Minor seem to have been overrun between the Seventh and Ninth Century.

In this list of Titular Sees held by Prelates in the United States I give 1, the See; 2, the name of the Prelate holding it; 3, his condition of office, and the Diocese or territory in which he is placed; 4, the year of his receiving the title. In some cases I add the location, and the names of the first and last known Bishops, with the years of their appointment. Corrections and additions solicited.

Vicars Apostolic are at this time Titular Bishops, and are placed where the country has not yet been organized into a Diocese, or where the succession has been interrupted. In the United States there are at this time four Vicariates, and one Prefecture, Apostolic.

Papal Nuncios are generally Titular Bishops.

Apostolic Delegates are generally Titular Bishops.

Auxiliary Bishops are Titulars, and are consecrated to assist another Bishop. They cannot exercise jurisdiction, they only perform the Episcopal Order and office, may be nominated "Vicar General by the Bishop whom he assists.

A Coadjutor Bishop is a helper to a Bishop in the discharge of the duties of his Bishopric. They may be either Temporary and Revocable, or Perpetual, which implies the right of succession. He may be also, Administrator, until such time as a Bishop may resume the charge, or in case of death his "Right of Succession," elevates him to the See. A Coadjutor has jurisdiction.
